Hulu In The Us Returns:

The Return of Gloria Jessie A. Davidson, 1926 Access to Knowledge for Consumers Jeremy Malcolm, 2010

Information Program grantee Consumers International has released the results of a global survey designed to expose the obstacles consumers face in gaining access to education and cultural materials. The survey was conducted in 13 languages covering 15 000 consumers across 24 countries. The survey found that the biggest barriers that consumers face in accessing copyright works are those created by copyright law. Even so, consumers around the world will choose original copyright works over pirated copies provided that they are available at an affordable price. While borrowing from libraries and other cultural institutions provided a viable alternative for some consumers priced out of original copyrighted works, the survey found that particularly in developing countries access to libraries is limited and the works they carry are few. Although the authors of the survey saw copyleft initiatives like Open Educational Resources and Free and Open Source Software as great ways to help consumers vault access barriers, they concluded that governments needed to act to address consumers' needs for lower cost original materials to buy, borrow, and access online. The survey forms the first two chapters of Consumers International's new report Access to Knowledge for Consumers: Reports of Campaigns and Research 2008-2010. Publisher description.

Return on Courage Ryan Berman, 2019-01-15. Unlock Courage. What do an astronaut, a Navy SEAL, the cofounder of Method, the former VP of communications at Apple, and the president of Domino's all have in common? Ryan Berman spent three years shadowing the most courageous people and leaders on the planet to find out what they have done to accomplish liberating personal or business feats. Fifty-two percent of Fortune 500 companies from the year 2000 are now extinct, and 80 percent of all start-ups will fail within their first 18 months. Yet there's a lack of urgency to address this callous reality across the board in most organizations. And the solution can be unlocked with courage. Return on Courage (ROC) is the go-to courage instructional manual that helps readers attack and shrink business fears head-on. They will learn how to relentlessly play offense, drive change, and transform into a Courage Brand. ROC can be the secret weapon to innovating new products and services, maximizing ROI, and revolutionizing their industry. Intimate Politics Sara L. Friedman, 2020-03-17. On a visit to eastern Hui'an in 1994, Sara Friedman was surprised to see a married woman reluctant to visit her conjugal home. The author would soon learn that this practice was typical of the area, along with distinctive female dress styles, gender divisions of labor, and powerful same-sex networks. These customs, she would learn, have long distinguished villages in this coastal region of southeastern China from other rural Han communities. Intimate Politics explores these practices that have constituted eastern Hui'an residents' women in particular as an anomaly among rural Han. This book asks what such practices have come to mean in a post-1949 socialist order that has incorporated forms of marriage, labor, and dress into a developmental scale extending from the primitive to the civilized. Government reform campaigns were part of a wholesale effort to remake Chinese society by replacing its feudal elements with liberated socialist ideals and practices. As state actors became involved in the intimate aspects of Huidong women's lives their official models of progress were challenged by the diversity of local practices and commitment of local residents These politicized entanglements have generated what the author calls intimate politics a form of embodied struggle in which socialist civilizing agendas from the state sponsored reforms of the Maoist decades to the market based reform and opening of the post Mao era have been formulated contested and in some cases transformed through the bodies and practices of local women

Saltwater Sociality Katharina Schneider, 2012 The inhabitants of Pororan Island a small group of saltwater people in Papua New Guinea are intensely interested in the movements of persons across the island and across the sea both in their everyday lives as fishing people and on ritual occasions From their observations of human movements they take their cues about the current state of social relations Based on detailed ethnography this study engages current Melanesian anthropological theory and argues that movements are the Pororans predominant mode of objectifying relations Movements on Pororan Island are to its inhabitants what roads are to mainlanders on the nearby larger island and what material objects and images are to others elsewhere in Melanesia

Kingship and Sacrifice Valerio Valeri, 1985-06-15 Valeri presents an overview of Hawaiian religious culture in which hierarchies of social beings and their actions are mirrored by the cosmological hierarchy of the gods As the sacrifice is performed the worshipper is incorporated into the god of his class Thus he draws on divine power to sustain the social order of which his action is a part and in which his own place is determined by the degree of his resemblance to his god The key to Hawaiian society and a central focus for Valeri is the complex and encompassing sacrificial ritual that is the responsibility of the king for it displays in concrete actions all the concepts of pre Western Hawaiian society By interpreting and understanding this ritual cycle Valeri contends we can interpret all of Hawaiian religious culture
