Muralists : Orozco, Rivera, Siqueiros Desmond Rochfort, 1993 Three Mexican Painters , 1948 Art and Revolution in Latin America, 1910-1990 David Craven, 2006-01-01 In this uniquely wide ranging book David Craven investigates the extraordinary impact of three Latin American revolutions on the visual arts and on cultural policy The three great upheavals in Mexico 1910-40 in Cuba 1959-89 and in Nicaragua 1979-90 were defining moments in twentieth century life in the Americas Craven discusses the structural logic of each movement's artistic project by whom how and for whom artworks were produced and assesses their legacies In each case he demonstrates how the consequences of the revolution

reverberated in the arts and cultures far beyond national borders The book not only examines specific artworks originating from each revolution's attempt to deal with the challenge of socializing the arts but also the engagement of the working classes in Mexico Cuba and Nicaragua with a tradition of the fine arts made newly accessible through social transformation

Craven considers how each revolution dealt with the pressing problem of creating a dialogical art one that reconfigures the existing artistic resource rather than one that just reproduces a populist art to keep things as they were In addition the author charts the impact on the revolutionary processes of theories of art and education articulated by such thinkers as John Dewey and Paulo Freire The book provides a fascinating new view of the Latin American revolutionaries from artists to political leaders who defined art as a fundamental force for the transformation of society and who bequeathed new ways of thinking about the relations among art ideology and class within a revolutionary process Three Mexican Painters Justino Fernandez, 1950

comprehensive collection of essays three generations of international scholars examine Mexican muralism in its broad artistic and historical contexts from its iconic figures Diego Rivera Jos Clemente Orozco and David Alfaro Siqueiros to their successors in Mexico the United States and across Latin America These muralists conceived of their art as a political weapon in popular struggles over revolution and resistance state modernization and civic participation artistic freedom and cultural imperialism The contributors to this volume show how these artists murals transcended borders to engage major issues raised by the many different forms of modernity that emerged throughout the Americas during the twentieth century

The Coit Tower Murals Robert W. Cherny,2024-11-12 Created in 1934 the Coit Tower murals were sponsored by the Public Works of Art Project PWAP the first of the New Deal art programs Twenty five master artists and their assistants worked there most of them in buon fresco Nearly all of them drew upon the palette and style of Diego Rivera The project boosted the careers of Victor Arnautoff Lucien Labaudt Bernard Zakheim and others but Communist symbols in a few murals sparked the first of many national controversies over New Deal art Sixty full color photographs illustrate Robert Cherny s history of the murals from their conception and completion through their evolution into a beloved San Francisco landmark Cherny traces and critiques the treatment of the murals by art critics and historians He also probes the legacies of Coit Tower and the PWAP before surveying San Francisco s recent controversies over New Deal murals An engaging account of an artistic landmark The Coit Tower Murals tells the full story behind a public art masterpiece

Three Mexican painters Justino Fernández,1948 Mexican muralist, international Marxist Curtis Swope,2024-10-29 David Alfaro Siqueiros was perhaps the most important communist painter of the twentieth century This book the first sustained engagement with Siqueiros s work in the English language focuses on the artist s late murals which are both aesthetically innovative and politically provocative It places Siqueiros in an international context revealing that the dogmatism he has been charged with was in reality a complex phenomenon It provided a foundation for rather than an obstacle to his efforts to create an art embedded in the day to day concerns and theoretical debates of the world wide mass movement he saw himself as a part of

Delirious Consumption Sergio Delgado Moya,2017-10-18 In the decades following World War II the creation and expansion of massive domestic markets and relatively stable economies allowed for mass consumption on an unprecedented scale giving rise to the consumer society that exists today Many avant garde artists explored the nexus between consumption and aesthetics questioning how consumerism affects how we perceive the world place ourselves in it and make sense of it via perception and emotion Delirious Consumption focuses on the two largest cultural economies in Latin America Mexico and Brazil and analyzes how their artists and writers both embraced and resisted the spirit of development and progress that defines the consumer moment in late capitalism Sergio Delgado Moya looks specifically at the work of David Alfaro Siqueiros the Brazilian concrete poets Octavio Paz and Lygia Clark to determine how each of them arrived at forms of aesthetic production balanced between high modernism and consumer culture He finds in their works a provocative positioning vis vis urban commodity capitalism an ambivalent position that takes an assured but flexible stance against commodification alienation and the politics of domination and inequality that defines market economies In Delgado Moya's view these poets and artists appeal to uselessness nonutility and noncommunication all markers of the aesthetic while drawing on the terms proper to a world of consumption and consumer culture Three Mexican Painters Justino Fernández, 1950 Three Mexican Painters, 1951 Three Mexican Painters, 1946 The Murals of José Clemente Orozco at the Hospicio Cabañas Institute Jeremy Hockett, 1999 Orozco, Rivera, Siqueiros Justino Fernández, 1950 Muralism Without Walls Anna Indych-López, 2009 Examines the introduction of Mexican muralism to the United States in the 1930s and the challenges faced by the artists their medium and the political overtones of their work in a new society Three Mexican Painters, 1948* Mexican Painters MacKinley Helm, 2012-03-13 Definitive introduction to art and artists of Mexico during great artistic movements of the 20s and 30s Discussion of Rivera Orozco Siqueiros Galvan Cant Meza many others History tradition social movements etc 95 illustrations José Clemente Orozco Bárbara Cruz, 1998 This biography recounts the life and career of one of the world's greatest artists Orozco's work has been compared to that of the great painter Michelangelo Famous for their stark depictions of the human condition Orozco's controversial murals still convey a powerful message today
