Backgrounds of Mexican American Literature Philip D. Ortego y Gasca,1971      Making Americans Desmond King,2000-05-15 Specifically the debates in the three decades leading up to 1929 were conceived in terms of desirable versus undesirable immigrants This not only cemented judgements about specific European groups but reinforced prevailing biases against groups already present in the United States particularly African Americans whose inferior status and second class citizenship enshrined in Jim Crow laws and embedded in pseudo scientific arguments about racial classifications appear to have been consolidated in these decades Although the values of different groups have always been recognised in the United States King gives the most thorough account yet of how eugenic arguments were used to establish barriers and to favour an Anglo Saxon conception of American identity rejecting claims of other traditions thus the immigration controversy emerges here as a significant precursor to recent multicultural debates
