Online Maps with APIs and WebServices Michael P. Peterson, 2012-03-30 The Internet has become the major form of map delivery. The current presentation of maps is based on the use of online services. This session examines developments related to online methods of map delivery, particularly Application Programmer Interfaces APIs and MapServices in general, including Google Maps API and similar services. Map mashups have had a major impact on how spatial information is presented. The advantage of using a major online mapping site is that the maps represent a common and recognizable representation of the world. Overlaying features on top of these maps provides a frame of reference for the map user. A particular advantage for thematic mapping is the ability to spatially reference thematic data. Half a Decade of Linux-y Shenanigans Bryan Lunduke, 2018-02-05 Every article written between 2012 and 2017 by Bryan Lunduke. Originally published by Network World, these articles represent a snapshot, a sort of time capsule, of the state of Linux, Open Source and alternative Operating Systems during that half decade. It was a crazy time covered by an equally crazy guy. The Spectator, 1910 from studying the most successful people's morning routines. He takes note of six different activities many of them do and calls them SAVERS. Whether you are a Real Estate Broker, Marketer, Entrepreneur, Teacher, Salesperson, or a parent with kids, this journal will transform your life. Many successful people practice at least four of six of these activities but rarely do all six. So what happens if you do all six activities 1 extra? That's for you to find out. The Miracle Morning Routine Journal contains 7 steps:

- 1. Silence: Meditation 10 Minutes. The first thing to do is meditate for 10 minutes. This can be silent meditation or guided meditation. There are a number of documented benefits to meditation, but doing this will give you added calm, focus, and concentration throughout the day. There are also many phone Apps that can help you get started, so don't wait.
- 2. Journaling Part 1: 5 Minutes. This is made up of two parts: Write down three things that you are grateful for today and 3 goals for the day. These don't have to be big, elaborate things. They can be small and simple. Also keep the goals just to the day.
- 3. Affirmations or Prayer: 5 Minutes. Affirmations are positive statements that can help you to challenge and overcome self-sabotaging and negative thoughts. When you repeat them often and believe in them, you can start to make positive changes. They are an extremely powerful way to rewire how your brain thinks, thus changing how you feel and your external physical world.
- 4. Choose an affirmation that is right for you and practice it for 5 minutes in silence. My favorite affirmation is "I can be what I will do."
- 5. Visualizations: 5 Minutes. Visualizations are similar to meditating. The difference is, in meditation, you do your best to think about nothing except your breathing. In visualization, you envision yourself accomplishing your goals. The goal here is to visualize yourself doing and living your affirmation.
- 6. Scribing: Journaling Part 2: 15-30 Minutes. Now that the mind is focused, take the next 15-30 minutes to write freely. This can be free writing about random things or structure writing. It doesn't matter. Sometimes it is simply helpful to empty out your thoughts on paper so that you have room during the day to learn and retain new things. It can be a way of house cleaning.
- 7. Reading: 15-30 Minutes. Reading is extremely important for all people. It is a way we feed our brain what it needs to be happy. It is known that some of the most famous and successful people in the world, like Bill Gates, Warren Buffet, and more, spend about 80% of their working days reading and learning new information. However, that might be overkill for most people; just 15-30 minutes every day will make a significant difference.
- 8. Exercising: 10-30 minutes. Maybe this means going for a morning run before the sun wakes you or doing some yoga. It doesn't have to be anything rigorous, but some kind of activity is good. Remember, the key to success is consistency. Stay consistent with your routine and observe the results. Good Luck on your Miracle Journey!
