Nystrom Atlas World History:

World History Elisabeth Gaynor Ellis, Anthony Esler, Atlas of World History Patrick Karl O'Brien, Patrick O'Brien, 2002 Synthesizing exceptional cartography and impeccable scholarship this edition traces 12 000 years of history with 450 maps and over 200 000 words of text 200 illustrations The Nystrom Atlas of World History Student Activities Nystrom, Herff Jones, Incorporated, 2005 Philip's Atlas of World History Patrick Karl O'Brien, 1999 Philip's Atlas of World History presents the entire story of civilisation in its physical setting from man's earliest beginnings to the latest political developments of the twentieth century. It is specially designed to help the reader visualise the great historical themes and turning points of the past combining maps which graphically depict the scope of these events with text explaining key historical themes and contexts. The book is divided into five sections each of which contains an introduction which highlights the main themes of the period and outlines its key trends and developments 1 The Ancient World human origins to AD500 2 The Medieval World 500 1500 3 The Early Modern World c 1500 1770 4 An Age of Revolutions c 1770 1914 5 The Twentieth Century from 1914. These five sections contain a total of 135 double page spreads each of which portrays key developments in a world region over a specific period of time. Each spread features brand new highly informative colour maps created by Philip's renowned cartographers together with complementary text which discusses and explains the larger historical, political, geographical, cultural, social and religious themes behind each topic. The book also contains a wealth of additional historical information including a detailed 22 page time chart, a 20 page gazetteer of historical places, concise biographies of significant figures and an extensive 20 page index. Successfully combining history and geography, Philip's Atlas of World History gives the reader a fascinating, accessible and visually exciting picture of historical events and their impact on the world we live in today. Main map scale Teaching Social Studies to English Language Learners Bárbara Cruz, Stephen J. Thornton, 2013 Teaching Social Studies to English Language Learners provides readers with a comprehensive understanding of both the challenges that face English language learners (ELLs) and ways in which educators might address them in the social studies classroom. The authors offer context specific strategies for the full range of the social studies curriculum including geography, U.S. history, world history, economics and government. These practical instructional strategies will effectively engage learners and can be incorporated as a regular part of instruction in any classroom. An annotated list of web and print resources completes the volume, making this a valuable reference to help social studies teachers meet the challenges of including all learners in effective instruction. Features and updates to this new edition include: An updated and streamlined Part 1 provides an essential overview of ELL theory in a social studies specific context. Teaching Tips offer helpful suggestions and ideas for creating and modifying lesson plans to be inclusive of ELLs. Additional practical examples and new pedagogical elements in Part 3 include more visuals, suggestions for harnessing new technologies, discussion questions and reflection points.
