Viewing Pleasure and Being a Showgirl Alison Carr, 2018-04-19 Drawing on interviews with a breadth of different showgirls from shows in Paris Las Vegas Berlin and Los Angeles as well as her own artworks and those by other contemporary and historical artists this book examines the experiences of showgirls and those who watch them to challenge the narrowness of representations and discussions around what has been termed sexualisation and the gaze An account of the experience of being looked at the book raises questions of how the showgirl is represented the nature of the pleasure that she elicits and the suspicion that surrounds it and what this means for feminism and the act of looking An embodied articulation of a new politics of looking Viewing Pleasure and Being a Showgirl engages with the idea reinforced by feminist critique that images of women are linked to selling and that women s bodies have been commodified in capitalist culture raising the question of whether this enables particular bodies those of glamorous women on display to become scapegoats for our deeper anxieties about consumerism      The Angel Intrudes Floyd Dell,1918
