Pdf Future Publics Rest Should People:

States, Firms, and Their Legal Fictions Melissa J. Durkee, 2024-03-07 This volume offers a new point of entry into questions about how the law conceives of states and firms. Because states and firms are fictitious constructs rather than products of evolutionary biology the law dictates which acts should be attributed to each entity and by which actors. Those legal decisions construct firms and states by attributing identity and consequences to them. As the volume shows, these legal decisions are often products of path dependence or conceptual metaphors like personhood that have expanded beyond their original uses. Focusing on attribution the volume considers an array of questions about artificial entities that are usually divided into doctrinal siloes. These include questions about attribution of international legal responsibility to states and state-owned entities, transnational attribution of liabilities to firms and attribution of identity rights to corporations. Durkee highlights the artificiality of doctrines that construct firms and states and therefore their susceptibility to change.

The Dark Theatre Alan Read, 2020-04-07 The Dark Theatre is an indispensable text for activist communities wondering what theatre might have to do with their futures students and scholars across Theatre and Performance Studies, Urban Studies, Cultural Studies, Political Economy and Social Ecology. The Dark Theatre returns to the bankrupted warehouse in Hope Sufferance Wharf in London's Docklands where Alan Read worked through the 1980s to identify a four-decade interregnum of cultural cruelty wreaked by financialisation, austerity and communicative capitalism. Between the OPEC Oil Embargo and the first screening of The Family in 1974 to the United Nations report on UK poverty and the fire at Grenfell Tower in 2017 this volume becomes a book about loss. In the harsh light of such loss is there an alternative to the market that profits from peddling well-being and pushes prescriptions for self-help? any role for the arts that is not an apologia for injustice? What if culture were not the solution but the problem when it comes to the mitigation of grief? Creativity not the remedy but the symptom of a structural malaise called inequality. Read suggests performance is no longer a political panacea for the precarious subject but a loss adjustor measuring damages suffered, compensations due, wrongs that demand to be put right. These field notes from a fire sale are a call for angry arts of advocacy representing those abandoned as the detritus of cultural authority second order victims whose crime is to have appealed for help from those looking on audiences of sorts.
