The Reinvention of Liberal Learning Around the Globe Insung Jung, Ka Ho Mok, 2023-03-21 Despite or because we live in calculative and instrumental times in higher education liberal arts colleges and programmes are flourishing. They draw students fascinated by society and culture who want to make a creative contribution. The Reinvention of Liberal Learning around the Globe is an indispensable introduction to this diverse and brilliant educational world. Simon Marginson Professor of Higher Education Director of ESRC RE Centre for Global Higher Education University of Oxford. The editors pull together a diverse set of authors to share a wide range of approaches and trends in shaping the present and future of our liberal arts institutions and programs. The diversity of perspectives makes this book of interest and use to anyone thinking deeply about and acting in support of the future of higher education and liberal arts education. Michael McDonald President Great Lakes Colleges Association and the Global Liberal Arts Alliance. This book rigorously questions and redefines liberal arts education by examining unique contexts of Asia, North and South America, Europe, Africa and the Middle East. It also considers the complexity of contemporary issues and emerging innovations in higher education. With the diversity of perspectives and experiences presented by the international authors we could envision future liberal arts education in nurturing global and caring leaders with multiple collaborative possibilities through this book. Mikiko Nishimura Professor of International Christian University Japan Co President of the Global Research Network for Liberal Arts Education. This volume comprehensively documents the transforming nature of liberal arts institutions within the overall tensions provided by the global pandemic occurring at the intersection with a major transitional moment of technology and communication. Its timeliness is underscored by the geographic reach of its contributions providing a unique perspective on the multitude of ways in which higher education is responding to these powerful forces. Deane E Neubauer Professor Emeritus of Political Science University of Hawaii Manoa Associate Director of the Asia Pacific Higher Education Research Partnership. This is a most timely overview and analysis of liberal arts worldwide. The editors brought together thoughtful scholars from around the world to demonstrate the dogged persistence, resiliency and vulnerability of the liberal arts. For those who still believe that the key value of higher learning is to enrich the intellect, enliven the spirit and take more responsibility for the future of humanity this valuable book provides a framework for the future. Gerard A Postiglione Emeritus Professor Honorary Professor of Education The University of Hong Kong Chapter 3 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link springer.com

EBOOK: The First Year At University: Teaching Students In Transition Bill Johnston, 2010-01-16 If academics are genuinely to develop as teachers throughout their careers if they are to continue to produce innovations they have to bring a scholarly orientation to teaching. This series will show them how to do that. It will teach them how to make credible cases for different forms of innovation thus helping them to situate teaching centrally in their careers. It will also show them ways of solving students problems and methods of helping their students to learn more effectively THE FIRST YEAR AT UNIVERSITY Teaching Students in Transition The first year at university can be a very challenging time for students especially in a mass system of higher education Many students are ill equipped to cope with life at university and retention is now a critical metric for all universities This has resulted in universities having to spend considerable time and attention on ensuring that the first year experience is as positive as possible for all students This book offers a range of practical strategies underpinned by relevant research which lecturers can implement when charged with working with first year students in order to ease their transition to higher education These strategies affect not only the design of courses teaching and assessment but also how teams of lecturers provide consistent support and how this in turn is supported by strategic planning at an institutional level The First Year at University is a practical resource that can be used by a wide range of lecturers including those undertaking the PGCE Higher Education as well as those on CPD courses on teaching and learning in higher education Higher Education Administration with Social Media Laura A.

Wankel,Charles Wankel,2011-01-18 New technologies provide new ways of delivering the programs and services of higher educational HE institutions This book examines how social media are redefining what university communities are and the purposes and practices of the various functional areas in HE A Good Job George S. McClellan,Kristina L.

Creager,Marianna Savoca,2023-07-03 For many students working while in college is a defining characteristic of the undergraduate experience However student workers often view campus employment as a money making opportunity rather than a chance for personal development Likewise institutions often neglect to consider campus jobs as a means to education and student engagement It is the distinction between work for remuneration and work for personal development which shapes much of the discussion of student employment throughout A Good Job This book makes the case for campus employment as a high impact practice in higher education and provides models for institutional efforts to implement new student employment strategies Carefully designed campus employment opportunities can have numerous benefits including career exploration and preparation learning and increased engagement leading to increased retention The authors make the case that employment can and should be a purposeful and powerful component in any higher education institution s efforts to support student learning development and success This book is an excellent resource for anyone interested in capitalizing on the developmental and learning potential of student employment on campus New Zealand Journal of Educational Studies

Unemployment Puzzle Christian Haefke,2000 Active Learning: Theoretical Perspectives, Empirical Studies and Design Profiles Robert Cassidy,Elizabeth S. Charles,James D. Slotta,Nathaniel Lasry,2019-07-11 This book represents the emerging efforts of a growing international network of researchers and practitioners to promote the development and uptake of evidence based pedagogies in higher education at something a level approaching large scale impact By offering a communication venue that attracts and enhances much needed partnerships among practitioners and researchers in pedagogical innovation we aim to change the conversation and focus on how we work and learn together i e extending the implementation and knowledge of co design methods In this first edition of our Research Topic on Active Learning we highlight two of the three types of publications we wish to promote First are studies aimed at understanding the pedagogical designs developed by practitioners in their own practices by bringing to bear the theoretical lenses developed and tested in the education research community These types of studies constitute the practice pull that we see as a necessary counterbalance to knowledge push in a more productive pedagogical innovation ecosystem based on research practitioner partnerships Second are studies empirically examining the implementations of evidence based designs in naturalistic settings and under naturalistic conditions Interestingly the teams conducting these studies are already exemplars of partnerships between researchers and practitioners who are uniquely positioned as in betweens straddling the two worlds As a result these publications represent both the rigours of research and the pragmatism of reflective practice In forthcoming editions we will add to this collection a third type of publication design profiles These will present practitioner developed pedagogical designs at varying levels of abstraction to be held to scrutiny amongst practitioners instructional designers and researchers alike We hope by bringing these types of studies together in an open access format that we may contribute to the development of new forms of practitioner researcher interactions that promote co design in pedagogical innovation

Students at Risk of School Failure José Jesús Gázquez, José Carlos Núñez, 2018-10-18 The main objective of this Research Topic is to determine the conditions that place students at risk of school failure identifying student and context variables In spite of the fact that there is currently little doubt about how one learns and how to teach in some countries of the developed world there is still there is a high rate of school failure Although the term school failure is a very complex construct insofar as its causes consequences and development from the field of educational psychology the construct student engagement has recently gained special interest in an attempt to deal with the serious problem of school failure School engagement builds on the anatomy of the students involvement in school and describes their feelings behaviors and thoughts about their school experiences So engagement is an important component of students school experience with a close relationship to achievement and school failure Children who self set academic goals attend school regularly and on time behave well in class complete their homework and study at home are likely to interact adequately with the school social and physical environments and perform well in school In contrast children who miss school are more likely to display disruptive behaviors in class miss homework frequently exhibit violent behaviors on the playground fail subjects be retained and if the behaviors persist quit school Moreover engagement should also be considered as an important school outcome eliciting more or less supportive reactions from educators For example children who display school engaged behaviors are likely to receive motivational and instructional support from their teachers The opposite may also be true But what makes student engage more or less The relevant literature indicates that personal variables e g sensory motor neurodevelopmental cognitive motivational emotional behavior problems learning difficulties addictions social and or cultural variables e g negative family conditions child abuse cultural deprivation ethnic conditions immigration or school variables e g coexistence at school bullying cyberbullying may concurrently hinder engagement preventing the student from acquiring the learnings in the same conditions as the rest of the classmates

Sex & Gender Hilary M. Lips,2005 Provides an introduction to sex and gender theories research and issues This book focuses on social psychological and feminist perspectives It examines the similarities and differences between women and men discusses where that knowledge comes from and explains how that knowledge may itself be shaped and limited by cultural perceptions

Hybrid Intelligence for Social Networks Hema Banati,Siddhartha Bhattacharyya,Ashish Mani,Mario Köppen,2017-11-28 This book explains aspects of social networks varying from development and application of new artificial intelligence and computational intelligence techniques for social networks to understanding the impact of social networks Chapters 1 and 2 deal with the basic strategies towards social networks such as mining text from such networks and applying social network metrics using a hybrid approach Chaps 3 to 8 focus on the prime research areas in social networks community detection influence maximization and opinion mining Chapter 9 to 13 concentrate on studying the impact and use of social networks in society primarily in education commerce and crowd sourcing The contributions provide a multidimensional approach and the book will serve graduate students and researchers as a reference in computer science electronics engineering communications and information technology

Technical Bulletin ,1967   IEEE/ACM Transactions on Networking ,2009   Journal of the Air & Waste Management Association ,2006-07   Small Business Sourcebook ,2007-12   American Government Karen O'Connor,Larry

Sabato,2008 Guided by the belief that students must first understand how American government developed to fully understand the issues facing the United States in the 21st century O Connor Sabato offers the strongest coverage of both history and current events of any college textbook devoted to American politics This best selling book provides the historical context students need to understand American government and the most crucial and controversial issues affecting the nation O Connor Sabato has been extensively revised to provide the most in depth and current coverage of the 2006 midterm elections the second George W Bush administration the Iraq War and increasing controversies related to the conduct of the war on terrorism including renewed calls for additional congressional oversight of the Executive Branch The new edition also emphasizes the extent to which shared American values shape and affect policy and influence key political conflicts
