Pdf Online One Eyed Dukes Are Wild Behaving:

The Politics of Language Oppression in Tibet Gerald Roche, 2024-11-15 In The Politics of Language Oppression in Tibet Gerald Roche sheds light on a global crisis of linguistic diversity that will see at least half of the world's languages disappear this century Roche explores the erosion of linguistic diversity through a study of a community on the northeastern Tibetan Plateau in the People's Republic of China Manegacha is but one of the sixty minority languages in Tibet and is spoken by about 8 000 people who are otherwise mostly indistinguishable from the Tibetan communities surrounding them Recently many in these communities have switched to speaking Tibetan and Manegacha faces an uncertain future The author uses the Manegacha case to show how linguistic diversity across Tibet is collapsing under assimilatory state policies He looks at how global advocacy networks inadequately acknowledge this issue highlighting the complex politics of language in an interconnected world The Politics of Language Oppression in Tibet broadens our understanding of Tibet and China the crisis of global linguistic diversity and the radical changes needed to address this crisis

Exterranean Phillip John Usher, 2019-03-05 Exterranean concerns the extraction of stuff from the Earth a process in which matter goes from being sub to exterranean By opening up a rich archive of nonmodern texts and images from across Europe this work offers a bracing riposte to several critical trends in ecological thought By shifting emphasis from emission to extraction Usher reorients our perspective away from Earthrise like globes and shows what is gained by opening the planet to depths within The book thus maps the material and immaterial connections between the Earth from which we extract the human and nonhuman agents of extraction and the extracted matter with which we live daily Eschewing the self congratulatory claims of posthumanism Usher instead elaborates a productive tension between the materially situated homo of nonmodern humanism and the abstract and aggregated anthropos of the Anthropocene In dialogue with Michel Serres Bruno Latour and other interdisciplinary work in the environmental humanities Usher shows what premodern material can offer to contemporary theory Examining textual and visual culture alike Usher explores works by Ronsard Montaigne and Rabelais early scientific works by Paracelsus and others as well as objects engravings buildings and the Salt Mines of Wieliczka Both historicist and speculative in approach Exterranean lays the groundwork for a comparative ecocriticism that reaches across and untranslates theoretical affordances between periods and languages
