Migratory Settings Tamyrisintersecting Place Sex And Race:

Migratory Settings, 2015-06-29 Migratory Settings proposes a shift in perspective from migration as movement from place to place to migration as installing movement within place Migration not only takes place between places but also has its effects on place in place In brief we suggest a view on migration in which place is neither reified nor transcended but thickened as it becomes the setting of the variegated memories imaginations dreams fantasies nightmares anticipations and idealizations of both migrants and native inhabitants that experiences of migration bring into contact with each other Migration makes place overdetermined turning it into the mise en scene of different histories Hence movement does not lead to placelessness but to the intensification and overdetermination of place its heterotopicality At the same time place does not unequivocally authenticate or validate knowledge but shot through with the transnational and the transcultural exceeds it ceaselessly Our contributions take us to the migratory settings of a fictional exhibition a staged political wedding a walking tour in a museum African appropriations of Shakespeare and Sophocles Gollwitz Germany Calais France the body after a heart transplant refugees family portraiture a garden in Vermont the womb With contributions by Mieke Bal Maaikje Bleeker Paulina Aroch Astrid van Weyenberg Sarah de Mul Annette Seidel Arpac Sudeep Dasgupta Wim Staat Maria Boletsi Griselda Pollock Alex Rotas and Murat Aydemir

Gender and Laughter Gaby Pailer, 2009 This essay collection is dedicated to intersections between gender theories and theories of laughter humour and comedy It is based on the results of a three year research programme entitled Gender Laughter Media 2003 2006 and includes a series of investigations on traditional and modern media in western cultures from the 18th to the 20th century A theoretical opening part is followed by four thematic sections that explore the multiple forms of irritating stereotypical gender perceptions aspects of post colonialism and multiculturalism the comic impact of literary and media genres in different national cultures as well as the different comic strategies in fictional philosophical artistic or real life communication The volume presents a variety of new approaches to the overlaps between gender and laughter that have only barely been considered in groundbreaking research It forms a valuable read for scholars of literary theatre media and cultural studies at the same time reaching out to a general readership

The Politics of Adaptation Astrid Van Weyenberg, 2013 This book explores contemporary African adaptations of classical Greek tragedies Six South African and Nigerian dramatic texts by Yael Farber Mark Fleishman Athol Fugard Femi Osofisan and Wole Soyinka are analysed through the thematic lens of resistance revolution reconciliation and mourning The opening chapters focus on plays that mobilize Greek tragedy to inspire political change discussing how Sophocles heroine Antigone is reconfigured as a freedom fighter and how Euripides Dionysos is transformed into a revolutionary leader The later chapters shift the focus to plays that explore the costs and consequences of political change examining how the cycle of violence dramatized in Aeschylus Oresteia trilogy acquires relevance in post apartheid South Africa and how the mourning of Euripides Trojan Women resonates in and beyond Nigeria Throughout the emphasis is on how playwrights through adaptation perform a cultural politics directed at the Europe that has traditionally considered ancient Greece as its property foundation and legitimization Van Weyenberg additionally discusses how contemporary African reworkings of Greek tragedies invite us to reconsider how we think about the genre of tragedy and about the cultural process of adaptation Against George Steiner's famous claim that tragedy has died this book demonstrates that Greek tragedy holds relevance today But it also reveals that adaptations do more than simply keeping the texts they draw on alive through adaptation playwrights open up a space for politics In this dynamic between adaptation and pre text the politics of adaptation is performed

Tania El Khoury's Live Art Carrie Robbins, 2024-02-06 Tania El Khoury's Live Art is the first book to examine the work of Tania El Khoury a live artist deeply engaged in the politics and histories of the South West Asia and North Africa SWANA region Since the 2011 Syrian uprisings El Khoury has conceived and created works about lived experiences at and across international borders in collaboration with migrants refugees and displaced persons as well as other artists performers and revolutionaries All of El Khoury's works cross borders between forms of artistic practice between artists and audiences and between art and activism Facilitating critical dialogue about the politics of SWANA and the impact of globalization her performances and installations also test the boundaries of aesthetic political and everyday norms This interdisciplinary and multimedia reader features essays by artists curators and scholars who explore the dynamic possibilities and complexities of El Khoury's art From social workers to archeologists to archivists contributing authors engage with the radical epistemological and political revolutions that El Khoury and her collaborators invite us all to join
