Book Future Social Epistemology Collective Knowledge:

The Future of Social Epistemology James H. Collier, 2015-12-02 The Future of Social Epistemology A Collective Vision sets an agenda for exploring the future of what we human beings reimagining our selves and our society want need and ought to know The book examines concretely practically and speculatively key ideas such as the public conduct of philosophy models for extending and distributing knowledge the interplay among individuals and groups risk taking and the welfare state and envisioning people and societies remade through the breakneck pace of scientific and technological change An international team of contributors offers a collective vision one that speaks to what they see unfolding and how to plan and conduct the dialogue and work leading to a knowable and desirable world The book describes and advances an intellectual agenda for the future of social epistemology

Collective Wisdom Hélène Landemore, Jon Elster, 2012-07-16 The contributors to this volume discuss and for the most part challenge whether many minds can be wiser than one The Social Epistemology of Experimental Economics Ana Cordeiro dos Santos, 2009-09-11 This book develops a framework for the analysis of scientific experimentation and applies it to the experimental field of economics looking at the epistemic role of the participation of human subjects in economics experiments Belief, Agency, and Knowledge Matthew Chrisman, 2022 Belief Agency and Knowledge is a study focused on the normative aspects of epistemology More specifically it is concerned with the nature of epistemic norms and their relation both to the value of knowledge and to the structure of cognitive agency

Knowing Humanity in the Social World Francis X Remedios, Val Dusek, 2018-01-09 This book examines Fuller's pioneering vision of social epistemology It focuses specifically on his work post 2000 which is founded in the changing conception of humanity and project into a post or trans human future Chapters treat especially Fuller's provocative response to the changing boundary conditions of the knower due to anticipated changes in humanity coming from the nanosciences neuroscience synthetic biology and computer technology and end on an interview with Fuller himself While Fuller's turn in this direction has invited at least as much criticism as his earlier work to him the result is an extended sense of the knower or humanity 2.0 which Fuller himself identifies with transhumanism The authors assess Fuller's work on the following issues Science and Technology Studies STS the university and intellectual life neo liberal political economy intelligent design Cosmism Gnosticism agent oriented epistemology proactionary vs precautionary principles and Welfare State 2.0

Feedback Loops Andrew Wells Garnar, Ashley Shew, 2020-11-03 In a world of information technologies genetic engineering controversies about established science and the mysteries of quantum physics it is at once seemingly impossible and absolutely vital to find ways to make sense of how science technology and society connect In Feedback Loops Pragmatism about Science Technology editors Andrew Wells Garnar and Ashley Shew bring together original writing from philosophers and science and technology studies scholars to provide novel ways of rethinking the relationships among science technology education and society Through critiquing and exploring the work of philosopher of science and technology Joseph C Pitt the authors featured in this volume investigate the complexities of contemporary technoscience writing on topics ranging from super computing to pedagogy engineering to biotechnology patents and scientific instruments to disability studies Taken together these chapters develop an argument about the necessity of using pragmatism to foster a more productive relationship among science technology and society Library & Information Science Abstracts ,2008 A Research Annual Warren J. Bryant,Dennis L. Peck,2006-11-17 21st Century Sociology A Reference Handbook provides a concise forum through which the vast array of knowledge accumulated particularly during the past three decades can be organized into a single definitive resource The two volumes of this Reference Handbook focus on the corpus of knowledge garnered in traditional areas of sociological inquiry as well as document the general orientation of the newer and currently emerging areas of sociological inquiry Environment and Planning ,2007 Social Epistemology ,1991 Advancing Futures James A. Dator,2002-04-30 What is Futures Studies what are the theories and methods underlying the field What are its basic concepts and metaphors and how is it related to other academic fields These are the core questions addressed in this book by a comprehensive assembly of distinguished scholars They explore the enigma of why Futures Studies despite its growing maturity as an intellectual endeavor after more than three decades of groundbreaking work still struggles for institutional acceptance Together these contributors paint a picture of Futures Studies not so much a product of the stale intellectual heritage of the 20th century but as a vibrant harbinger of intellectual perspectives sure to gain wider currency in the 21st Drawing on their backgrounds in fields as diverse as political science history sociology anthropology economics psychology management and human ecology this international line up of contributors includes world systems theorist Immanuel Wallerstein philosopher Peter Manicas management professor Bill Halal and industrial sociologist Arthur Shostak

Coalitions of Interest Ruth Alsop,2000-05 This book documents a technique called process monitoring PM which is designed to bring about sustainable agricultural change in the semi arid areas of India PM is a dynamic process characterised by interaction and collaboration between different stakeholders including various levels of government NGOs and farmers groups Examining PM in the context of the state of Rajasthan this book is firmly rooted in practice However it also extends to applied policy by exposing the complexity of working with multiple actors This is an essential tool for programme designers who might be struggling to assist diverse agents to articulate and act upon a common interest
