Information Literacy Instruction that Works Patrick Ragains, 2013-06-27 Information literacy and library instruction are at the heart of the academic library's mission. But how do you bring that instruction to an increasingly diverse student body and an increasingly varied spectrum of majors? In this updated expanded new second edition featuring more than 75% new content, Ragains and 16 other library instructors share their best practices for reaching out to today's unique users. Readers will find strategies and techniques for teaching college and university freshmen, community college students, students with disabilities, and those in distance learning programs. Alongside sample lesson plans, presentations, brochures, worksheets, handouts, and evaluation forms, Ragains and his contributors offer proven approaches to teaching students in the most popular programs of study, including English, Literature, Art, and Art History, Film Studies, History, Psychology, Science, Agricultural Sciences, and Natural Resources. Hospitality, Business, Music, Anthropology, Engineering, Coverage of additional special topics, including legal information for non-law students, government information and patent searching, make this a complete guide to information literacy instruction.

Information Resources in the Humanities and the Arts Anna H. Perrault Ph.D., Elizabeth S. Aversa, Sonia Ramírez Wohlmuth, Cynthia J. Miller, Cynthia F. Miller, 2012-12-10 This familiar guide to information resources in the humanities and the arts, organized by subjects and emphasizing electronic resources, enables librarians, teachers, and students to quickly find the best resources for their diverse needs. Authoritative, trusted, and timely, Information Resources in the Humanities and the Arts, Sixth Edition, introduces new librarians to the breadth of humanities collections, experienced librarians to the nature of humanities scholarship, and the scholars themselves to a wealth of information they might otherwise have missed. This new version of a classic resource, the first update in over a decade, has been refreshed to account for the myriad of digital resources that have rewritten the rules of the reference and research world and been expanded to include significantly increased coverage of world literature and languages. This book is invaluable for a wide variety of users: librarians in academic, public, school, and special library settings; researchers in religion, philosophy, literature, and the performing and visual arts; graduate students in library and information science; and teachers and students in humanities, the arts, and interdisciplinary degree programs.

The Journal of Classics Teaching, 2005 ECLAP 2012 Conference on Information Technologies for Performing Arts, Media Access and Entertainment Paolo Nesi, 2012 It has been a long history of Information Technology innovations within the Cultural Heritage areas The Performing arts has also been enforced with a number of new innovations which unveil a range of synergies and possibilities Most of the technologies and innovations produced for digital libraries media entertainment and education can be exploited in the field of performing arts with adaptation and repurposing Performing arts offer many interesting challenges and opportunities for research and innovations and exploitation of cutting edge research results from interdisciplinary areas For these reasons the ECLAP 2012 can be regarded as a continuation of past conferences such as AXMEDIS and WEDELMUSIC both pressed by IEEE and FUP ECLAP is an European Commission project to create a social network and media access service for performing arts institutions in Europe to create the e library of performing arts exploiting innovative solutions coming from the ICT
