Secrets of an Untitled Mind Joshua Murphy Dobbs, 2020-05-29 In the middle of the quarantine for COVID 19 after reading one memoir after another Joshua Murphy Dobbs found the inspiration to write his own memoir Like many others with nothing but time on his hands while out of work his story unfolded in rapid succession in just eight days His psychiatrist asked him if he was manic after he shared the news that he had just written an entire book since his last Telehealth appointment with her The book travels through his childhood of finding out he was biracial to a diagnosis of bipolar 1 while in a psych ward in the Army His struggles to find the right mix of medications would land him in jail more than once The story follows his life giving the reader hope Even though the story follows his life as closely as it can being a bipolar writer weaves the reader in and out of his life on a roller coaster In the end his tattoos remind him of who he will become the core midsection and other muscles that often get neglected by other activities My introduction to Pilates happened at an early age For most of my life I was considered tall for my age with long legs and big feet My parents thought it would be a good idea to enroll their lanky toddler in ballet classes I continued those classes and other dance classes for over 14 years In high school I was a lean 5'8" ballet dancer and basketball player I still had big feet but they were complemented by long legs long arms and a long neck What did I have to complain about My midsection I was relatively slim but I had a pudgy middle In high school where appearances are everything I wanted to do something about it Fortunately around this time my dance instructor introduced the class to the Pilates method She said that Pilates is based off of the ballet moves many of us had been doing for most of our lives She promised that the method would flatten our midsections and make us feel taller My dance instructor made good on her promise After just 15-20 minutes of Pilates before we started dancing I felt taller Over time I felt slimmer I was hooked I've been doing Pilates ever since and I love it I've taken classes and I've done several Pilates DVDs Of all the activities I participate in everything from running to basketball to kickboxing to Zumba Pilates is one that I always come back to because it is really so effective and important
