portray the disorientation of a world facing climate change. This monumental volume drawn from a 2020 exhibition at the ZKM Center for Art and Media portrays the disorientation of life in a world facing climate change. It traces this disorientation to the disconnection between two different definitions of the land on which modernizing humans live: the sovereign nation from which they derive their rights and another one hidden from which they gain their wealth: the land they live on and the land they live from. Charting the land they will inhabit, they find not a globe nor the iconic blue marble but a series of critical zones, patchy, heterogeneous, discontinuous. With short pieces, longer essays, and more than 500 illustrations, the contributors explore the new landscape on which it may be possible for humans to land what it means to be on Earth whether the critical zone is the Gaia or the terrestrial. They consider geopolitical conflicts and tools redesigned for the new geopolitics of life forms. The thought exhibition described in this book can open a fictional space to explore the new climate regime the rest of the story is unknown. Contributors include Dipesh Chakrabarty, Pierre Charbonnier, Emanuele Coccia, Vinciane Despret, Jerome Gaillarde, Donna Haraway, Joseph Leo Koerner, Timothy Lenton, Richard Powers, Simon Schaffer, Isabelle Stengers, Bronislaw Szerszynski, Jan A.
