Hearings United States. Congress. House, 1945 Trauma and Meaning Making Danielle Schaub, Elspeth McInnes, 2023-10-20 Trauma and Meaning Making highlights multiple practices of meaning making after traumatic events in the lives of individuals and communities Meaning making consists both in a personal journey towards a new way to exist and live in a world shattered by trauma and in public politics locating and defining what has happened In both perspectives the collection evaluates the impact achieved by naming the victim s and thus the right of the victim s to suffer from its aftermath or by refusing to recognise the traumatic event and thus the right of the victim s to respond to it A range of paradigms and techniques invite readers to consider anew the specificities of context and relationship while negotiating post traumatic survival By delineating how one makes sense of traumatic events this volume will enable readers to draw links between practices grounded in diverse disciplines encompassing creative arts textual analysis public and collective communication psychology and psychotherapy memory and memorial A Pilgrimage to Nejd, the Cradle of the Arab Race Lady Anne Blunt, 1881 Littell's Living Age , 1862 City on Fire Bill Minutaglio, 2014-02-15 A history of the 1947 disaster that rocked a segregated Texas boomtown and revealed disturbing negligence by the private sector and the US government First published in 2003 City on Fire is a gripping intimate account of the explosions of two ships loaded with ammonium nitrate fertilizer that demolished Texas City Texas in April 1947 in one of the most catastrophic disasters in American history Remarkable A terrific nonfiction work that has the narrative force of an adventure novel Washington Post Among the greatest life or death tales ever told Esquire City on Fire will stand on its own as one of the finest books ever written about Texas Texas Observer Incendiary reading A harrowing mosaic about a blaze during a time of racial divisions and environmental plundering evocatively told The book vividly details the carnage as well as some acts of heroism and selflessness Publishers Weekly Riveting Reminiscent of New York City s rise from the ashes after September 11 the chronicle of Texas City s devastation and resurrection will strike a chord with contemporary readers Booklist History at its best at once thrilling and illuminating The story of ambition hubris tragedy and bravery is as timeless today in all of America as it was back in Texas more than half a century ago David Maraniss author of Barack Obama The Story *Vergil's Aeneid, books vii.-x.: a tr., by A.A.I. Reports Made to the ... General Assembly of the State of Illinois, Illinois, 1875. States of Exception or Exceptional States Simon Mabon, Sanaa Al Sarghali, Adel Ruished, 2022-07-14. This book explores the application of the work of the philosopher Giorgio Agamben to the post Arab Uprisings in the Middle East considering the evolution of regime society relations that ultimately erupted in violence in the early months of 2011. Agamben's ideas of the state of exception and bare life provide important intellectual tools to understand the nature of sovereignty and the regulation of life which has largely been missing in the study of the region. Filling a theoretical and empirical gap by exploring the concept of the state of exception via a multidisciplinary approach, Simon Mabon, Sanaa Al Sarghali and contributors in the fields of political science, law and philosophy offer a unique set of perspectives analysing how politics and law combine to facilitate the misuse of executive powers. Hindu Widow Marriage Ishvarchandra Vidyasagar, 2011-11-22. Before the passage of the Hindu Widow's Re-marriage Act of 1856, Hindu tradition required a woman to live as a virtual outcast after her husband's death. Widows were expected to shave their heads, discard their jewelry, live in seclusion and undergo regular acts of penance. Ishvarchandra Vidyasagar was the first Indian intellectual to successfully argue against these strictures. A Sanskrit scholar and passionate social reformer, Vidyasagar was a leading proponent of widow marriage in colonial India, urging his contemporaries to reject a ban that caused countless women to suffer needlessly. Vidyasagar's brilliant strategy paired a rereading of Hindu scripture with an emotional plea on behalf of the widow, resulting in an organic reimagining of Hindu law and custom. Vidyasagar made his case through the two-part publication Hindu Widow Marriage, a tour de force of logic, erudition and humanitarian rhetoric. In this new translation, Brian A. Hatcher makes available in English for the first time the entire text of one of the most important nineteenth-century treatises on Indian social reform. An expert on Vidyasagar, Hinduism and colonial Bengal, Hatcher enhances the original treatise with a substantial introduction describing Vidyasagar's multifaceted career as well as the history of colonial debates on widow marriage. He innovatively interprets the significance of Hindu Widow Marriage within modern Indian intellectual history by situating the text in relation to indigenous commentarial practices. Finally, Hatcher increases the accessibility of the text by providing an overview of basic Hindu categories for first-time readers, a glossary of technical vocabulary and an extensive bibliography. Testimony Shoshana Felman, Dori Laub, 2013-10-18. In this unique collection, Yale literary critic Shoshana Felman and psychoanalyst Dori Laub examine the nature and function of memory and the act of witnessing both in their general relation to the acts of writing and reading and in their particular relation to the Holocaust. Moving from the literary to the visual, from the artistic to the autobiographical and from the psychoanalytic to the historical, the book defines for the first time the trauma of the Holocaust as a radical crisis of witnessing.

the unprecedented historical occurrence of an event eliminating its own witness Through the alternation of a literary and clinical perspective the authors focus on the henceforth modified relation between knowledge and event literature and evidence speech and survival witnessing and ethics The South Australian Government Gazette South Australia,1900
