Naar De Achterhoek Der Aarde De Mimikaexpeditie Naar Nederlands Nieuwguinee:

Collecting Kamoro Karen Jacobs, 2011 The story of ethnographic collecting is one of cross cultural encounters This book focuses on collecting encounters in the Kamoro region of Papua from the earliest collections made in 1828 until 2011 Exploring the links between representation and collecting the author focuses on the creative and pragmatic agency of Kamoro people in these collecting encounters By considering objects as visualizations of social relations and as enactments of personal social or historical narrative this book combines filling a gap in the literature on Kamoro culture with an interest in broader questions that surround the nature of ethnographic collecting representation patronage and objectification An Ethnographic Bibliography of New Guinea Australian National University. Department of Anthropology and Sociology, 1968 Irian Jaya, 1982 Physical Anthropology Reconsidered David van Duuren, Mischa ten Kate, 2007 This publication describes and discusses the collection of human remains kept in Amsterdam's Tropenmuseum It is based on an inventory of the museum's physical anthropological collection collected between 1915 and 1964 and also refers to objects made from or with human remains as well as to anthropological photographs field notes and other archival sources The idea behind this Bulletin is to contribute to the debate on the significance of physical anthropological collections kept in museums around the world using the Tropenmuseum collection as a case in point Why did the collections develop What was their significance and what is their significance today Who is the rightful owner Who has or should have the authority to make decisions regarding the future of these collections including where they should end up For the Tropenmuseum these are questions of great relevance especially to the relationship between cultural and physical anthropology and can be answered in a dialogue between various stakeholders An Ethnographic Bibliography of New Guinea: Author index Australian National University. Department of Anthropology and Sociology, 1968 Kamoro Art Jan Pouwer, 2003 This book celebrates the long neglected art of the Kamoro a people living along the southwest coast of Papua Traditional Kamoro culture was characterized by an almost uninterrupted series of feasts and ceremonies Some of these feasts are still celebrated today Woodcarvings made in a distinct style play an essential part in the proceedings For the first time a selection of major pieces from the collection of the Rijksmuseum voor Volkenkunde augmented by rare objects from other museums in The Netherlands has been brought together Many of the objects some collected as early as 1828 are unique Recently collected woodcarvings show the versatility of the Kamoro in continuing the tradition while adding innovation changes to their repertoire This book edited by Dirk Smidt includes a substantial essay by Jan Pouwer on major ceremonial feasts and contributions by other experts in the field including Todd Harple Karen Jacobs Methodius Mamapuku and Hein A van der Schoot A New Guinea Bibliography, 1984 Het economisch aspect van het Nieuw-Guinea probleem John William Hamilton Leslie-Miller, J. W. H. Leslie-Miller, 1959 Communion of Saints in Context Eric Trozzo, Weng Kit Cheong, Joeferick Ating, 2020 The communion of saints has been called a sleeping symbol within Christian churches often overlooked and poorly understood This is particularly true within the Protestant tradition which has too often uncritically rejected concepts and practices related to talking about the saints In this book Protestant scholars working in Asia and Oceania consider anew the tradition of recognising the community of saints by lifting up how it may be more effectively expressed in their local contexts Publisher Nederlands tijdschrift voor geneeskunde ,1959 Bibliographie van Nederlands-Nieuw-Guinea Klaas Wilhelm Galis,1955 Cultureel Indie Koloniaal Instituut Afdeling Volkenkunde Amsterdam,2024-07-29 Vademecum voor Nederlands-Nieuw-Guinea, 1956 ,1956 Vademecum voor Nederlands-Nieuw-Guinea, 1956 Nieuw-Guinea Instituut, Rotterdam,1956 Art as Contact with the Ancestors Pauline van der Zee,2009 Questions about the meanings of non western art keep intriguing western art observers Working towards understanding these meanings Pauline van der Zee here compares the art symbolism and mythology of two Papua people the Kamoro and Asmat There are no ready made and unambiguous answers to be given every interpretation is a partial one For the artist himself interpretation is not always an issue he follows the traditions of his ancestors In some cases meanings belong to culturally concealed knowledge not to be shared with outsiders Yet sometimes a bit of this knowledge is disclosed Adriaan Gerbrands 1967 drawing on both the work of Ref Gerard Zegwaard a profound scholar of Asmat culture and his own extensive fieldwork discovered that many Asmat designs can be interpreted as symbols of headhunting ideology Gerbrands focuses on what he calls the Sheadhunting nexus a nexus of related forms which can all be connected to headhunting practices and their meaning in the given cultural context But in fact there are many more interpretations possible Art as a medium of contact with ancestors is a recent comparative research focusing on the related yet different artistic expressions of Asmat and neighboring Kamoro The analysis is based on an investigation of the Asmat and Kamoro collections at the Tropenmuseum Amsterdam The approach taken here emphasizes relationships between art rituals and mythology Artifacts perform in rituals and rituals according to native beliefs were introduced by mythical heroes Combining cultural information embedded in myths and rituals with an investigation of various design elements and comparing Asmat and Kamoro data results in innovative interpretations resonating the intrinsic ambiguity of art Catalogue: Subjects Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology.
