Nationalist Exclusion And Ethnic Conflict Shadows Of Modernity:

Nationalist Exclusion and Ethnic Conflict Andreas Wimmer,2002-06-06 Andreas Wimmer argues that nationalist and ethnic politics have shaped modern societies to a far greater extent than has been acknowledged by social scientists The modern state governs in the name of a people defined in ethnic and national terms Democratic participation equality before the law and protection from arbitrary violence were offered only to the ethnic group in a privileged relationship with the emerging nation state Depending on circumstances the dynamics of exclusion took on different forms Where nation building was successful immigrants and ethnic minorities are excluded from full participation they risk being targets of xenophobia and racism In weaker states political closure proceeded along ethnic rather than national lines and leads to corresponding forms of conflict and violence In chapters on Mexico Iraq and Switzerland Wimmer provides extended case studies that support and contextualise this argument

Waves of War Andreas Wimmer,2012-11-22 Why did the nation state emerge and proliferate across the globe How is this process related to the wars fought in the modern era Analyzing datasets that cover the entire world over long stretches of time Andreas Wimmer focuses on changing configurations of power and legitimacy to answer these questions The nationalist ideal of self rule gradually diffused over the world and delegitimized empire after empire Nationalists created nation states wherever the power configuration favored them often at the end of prolonged wars of secession The elites of many of these new states were institutionally too weak for nation building and favored their own ethnic communities Ethnic rebels challenged such exclusionary power structures in violation of the principles of self rule and neighboring governments sometimes intervened into these struggles over the state Waves of War demonstrates why nation state formation and ethnic politics are crucial to understand the civil and international wars of the past 200 years

Figurations of Modernity V. J. H. Houben,Mona Schrempf,2008 Conventional wisdom holds that globalization has made the world more modern not less But how has modernity been conceived of in colonial postcolonial and post revolutionary worlds In Figurations of Modernity an international team of scholars probe how non European worlds have become modern ones from the perspective of a broad range of societies around the globe From vocational education in Argentina to secular morality in Tibet from the construction of heroes in Central Asia to historical memory in Nigeria this comprehensive volume reckons with the legacy of empire in a globalizing world Enhanced by the perspectives of historians anthropologists and scholars of comparative education Figurations of Modernity will be an essential book for those studying post colonial nations across disciplines

The Making of Modern Turkey Ugur Ümit Üngör,2012-03 Offers a novel perspective on the establishment of the Turkish nation state and highlights how the Young Turk regime from 1913 to 1950 subjected Eastern Turkey to various forms of nationalist population policies aimed at ethnically homogenizing the region and including it in the Turkish nation state

Identities, Nationalism, and the State Miaad Hassan,2023-02-27 Identities Nationalism and the State

The Politics of Ethnicity and Minority Regimes in the Middle East calls attention to the question of how minorities position and represent themselves during and after regime transitions and the dilemmas that minorities pose to regime change and how social cleavages shape minority preferences for regime type. It traces the path of ethnic and religious identities of minority regimes using the theories of modernization and nationalism to find that ethnic nationalism can be and often is incompatible with nation building. The author examines ethnic identity and ethnic conflict in the Middle East exploring the process of identity formation within the context of colonial politics and postcolonial Arab nationalism. By considering Iraq, Syria, Lebanon, and Bahrain, all significant regional actors, Identities, Nationalism, and the State tries to answer questions of legitimacy and inclusivity of minority rule, focusing not only on the outcomes of minority and majority rule but also on examples of where minorities find communal representation better than modern state governance. The Kurds in a Changing Middle East Faleh A. Jabar, Renad Mansour, 2019-11-28. The Kurds are one of the largest stateless nations in the world, numbering more than 20 million people. Their homeland lies mostly within the present-day borders of Turkey, Iraq, and Iran, as well as parts of Syria, Armenia, and Azerbaijan. Yet until recently, the Kurdish question—that is, the question of Kurdish self-determination—seemed to many observers dormant. It was only after the so-called Arab Spring and with the rise of the Islamic State that they emerged at the centre of Middle East politics. But what is the future of the Kurdish national movement? How do the Kurds themselves understand their community and quest for political representation? This book analyses the major problems, challenges, and opportunities currently facing the Kurds. Of particular significance, this book shows the new Kurdish society that is evolving in the context of a transforming Middle East. This society is made of diverse communities from across the region who represent very different historical, linguistic, political, social, and cultural backgrounds that are yet to be understood. This book examines the recent shifts and changes within Kurdish societies and their host countries and argues that the Kurdish national movement requires institutional and constitutional recognition of pluralism and diversity. Featuring contributions from world-leading experts on Kurdish politics, this timely book combines empirical case studies with cutting-edge theory to shed new light on the Kurds of the 21st century. Generations of Exclusion Edward E. Telles, Vilma Ortiz, 2008-03-21. Measures Mexican American integration across a wide number of dimensions: education, English and Spanish language use, socioeconomic status, intermarriage, residential segregation, ethnic identity, and political participation. The Formation of Modern Kurdish Society in Iran Marouf Cabi, 2021-11-04. Although the Kurds have attracted widespread international attention, Iranian Kurdistan has been largely overlooked. This book examines the consequences of modernity and modernisation for Iran's Kurdish society in the 20th century. Marouf Cabi argues that while state-led modernisation integrated the Kurds in modern Iran, the homogenisation of identity and culture also resulted in their vigorous pursuit of their political and cultural rights. Focusing on the dual process of state-led modernisation and homogenisation of identity and culture, Cabi examines the consequences of modernity and modernisation for the socioeconomic, cultural, and political structures as well as for gender relations It is the consequences of this dynamic dual process that explains the modern structures of Iran s Kurdish society on the one hand and its intimate relationship with Iran as a historical geographical and political entity on the other Using Persian Kurdish and English sources the book explores the transformation of Kurdish society between the Second World War and the 1979 Iranian Revolution with a special focus on the era of the White Revolution during the 1960s and 1970s Nation and Nationalism Andrzej Marcin Suszycki,Ireneusz Paweł Karolewski,2007

The Three Images of Ethnic War Querine Hanlon,2009-04-30 Why do ethnic groups adopt violent means In the 1990 s ethnicity emerged as the principle source of organized violence around the world Ethnic wars were no longer internal conflicts between substate actors instead they challenged state sovereignty and taxed the international community s ability to respond Efforts to understand ethnic conflict remain divorced from the study of systemic change and the declining authority capacity and legitimacy of weak multiethnic states This work proposes that the phenomenon of ethnic violence must be understood through a multilevel approach and that finding a solution to ethnic violence is possible only if we have a clear understanding of the sources that spark such violence in the first place The Three Images of Ethnic War identifies the causes of ethnic war at three levels of analysis the group the state and the international These are the three images of ethnic war This book places the outbreak of violence within context of the state and the international system in which the violence unfolds Hanlon examines three violent ethnic wars in Yugoslavia Nagorno Karabakh and Iraq Yugoslavia s violent ethnic wars the war over Nagorno Karabakh and the violent conflict between Kurds and Arabs in Iraqi Kurdistan demonstrate that ethnic violence is a complex and multifaceted occurrence Hanlon argues that the numerous reasons why groups adopt violent means can only be understood through a multilevel framework of the three images of ethnic war and the interrelationship among them

Civil Society, Conflicts and the Politicization of Human Rights Raffaele Marchetti,Nathalie Tocci,2011 This publication explores violence conflict and peace It focuses on the non governmental component in ethno political conflicts Civil society actors or conflict society organizations CoSOs are increasingly central in view of the complexity of contemporary ethno political conflicts CoSOs are key players in ethno political conflicts both as violators and as promoters of human rights Nevertheless the precise relationships underpinning the human rights civil society conflict nexus have not been fully examined This volume analyses the impact of civil society on ethno political conflicts through their human rights related activities and identifies the means to strengthen the complementarity between civil society and international governmental actors in promoting peace These aims are addressed in case studies on Bosnia Herzegovina Cyprus Turkey s Kurdish question and Israel Palestine

Nation-Building Jochen Hippler,2005-06-20 What is nation building and is it ever going to succeed A critical view from old Europe Crises and Conflicts in Post-socialist Societies Sabine Fischer,Heiko Pleines,2008 Papers presented at the Changing Europe summer school in Warsaw in Sept 2007

The Kurds Fâlih 'Abd al-Jabbâr,Hosham Dawod,2006 A landmark study of ethnicity and self determination in the case of the Kurds Understanding Nationalism Patrick Colm Hogan, 2009 Understanding Nationalism goes on to elaborate a cognitive poetics of national imagination most importantly narrative structure Hogan focuses particularly on three complex narrative prototypes that are prominent in human thought and action cross culturally and trans historically He argues that our ideas and feelings about what nations are and what they should be are fundamentally organized and oriented by these prototypes He develops this hypothesis through detailed analyses of national writings from Whitman to George W Bush from Hitler to Gandhi BOOK JACKET Refugee Survey Quarterly ,2003 Political Settlements in Divided Societies Christalla Yakinthou, 2009-07-23 The problem of how political settlements are to be adopted in divided or post conflict societies is one which is receiving growing attention as the international community increasingly views protracted intra state conflicts as carrying trans national consequences It is not only finding the most appropriate kind of political settlement that is so problematic but also how to reach the point where those proposals are adopted Cyprus provides an illuminating case study of these problems The object of many years of scrutiny and multiple sustained efforts at resolution of its division means that Cyprus can reveal a good deal about what impedes and what assists progress towards a settlement The experiences of Cyprus therefore can offer lessons to both practitioners working on political solutions for divided and post conflict societies and to academics and others seeking to understand how conflicts become intractable where the primary impediments lie to successful constitutional architecture and how those impediments can be overcome The book offers answers for why political leaders in Cyprus have been so unwilling to adopt a power sharing solution In so doing it offers new material for the wider debate regarding constitutional design and adoption of peace plans in divided societies on the politics of institutionalising peace Young Turk Social Engineering Uğur Ümit Üngör, 2009 Anthropos ,2004
