Of Living Valour The Story Of The Soldiers Of Waterloo:

Of Living Valour Barney White-Spunner, 2015-03-26 Publishing to coincide with the 200th anniversary of the Battle of Waterloo for the first time a modern British history tells the story of the against the odds triumph through the accounts of the regimental officers and soldiers whose bravery and resolution achieved victory The author has used many unpublished sources letters and diaries of ordinary British soldiers in the vein of Stephen Ambrose's highly successful Band of Brothers With a concise fast moving account covering ex Commander of the British Army Barney White Spunner tells the story through the experiences of those who fought there and their families offering his unique perspective on the events The story focuses on mens personal feelings and their relationships with each other their families their leaders and their enemies It tells the stories of their lives what they had left behind and why and what they went back to It vividly captures their daily routine their life in camp and how they fought at first hand their fear excitement and exhaustion The Battle of Waterloo was one of the most significant ever fought by a British army but it was also one of the most bloody with about 50 000 men losing their lives over three days What was it like for those who fought and for their families waiting at home This is their story

Maritime Animals Kaori Nagai, 2023-08-31 This volume explores nonhuman animals involvement with human maritime activities in the age of sail as well as the myriad multispecies connections formed across different geographical locations knitted together by the long history of global ship movement Far from treating the ship as a confined space defined by the sea Maritime Animals considers the ship's connections to broader contexts and networks and covers a variety of locations from the Canadian Arctic to the Pacific Islands Each chapter focuses on the oceanic experiences of a particular species from ship vermin animals transported onboard as food and animal specimens for scientific study to livestock companion and working animals deep sea animals that find refuge in shipwrecks and terrestrial animals that hunker down on flotsam and jetsam Drawing on recent scholarship in animal studies maritime studies environmental humanities and a wide range of other perspectives and storytelling approaches Maritime Animals challenges an anthropocentric understanding of maritime history Instead this volume highlights the ways in which species through their interaction with the oceans tell stories and make histories in significant and often surprising ways In addition to the editor the contributors to this volume include Anna Boswell Nancy Cushing Lea Edgar David Haworth Donna Landry Derek Lee Nelson Jimmy Packham Laurence Publicover Killian Quigley Lynette Russell Adam Sundberg and Thom van Dooren *A hand-book for travellers on the Continent: being a guide through Holland, Belgium, Prussia and Northern Germany, and along the Rhine from Holland to Switzerland ...
