Offering Hospitality Questioning Christian Approaches To War:

Offering Hospitality Caron E. Gentry, 2013 In Offering Hospitality Questioning Christian Approaches to War Caron Gentry contributes an informed feminist and postmodernist critique to the just war conversation Researching War Annick T. R. Wibben, 2016-05-12 Researching War provides a unique overview of varied feminist contributions to the study of war through case studies from around the world Written by well respected scholars each chapter explicitly showcases the role of feminist methodological ethical and political commitments in the research process Designed to be useful for teaching also the book provides insight into feminist research practices for students and scholars wanting to further their understanding what it means to study war and other issues from a feminist perspective To this end every author follows a four part structure in the presentation of their case study outlining a research puzzle explaining the chosen approach describing the findings and finally offering a reflection on the feminist commitments that guided the research This book Provides a multi disciplinary perspective on war by drawing on disciplines such as anthropology history literature peace research postcolonial theory queer studies security studies and women s studies Showcases a multiplicity of experiences with war and violence emphasizing everyday experiences of war and violence with accounts from around the world Challenges stereotypical accounts of women violence and war by pointing to contradictions and unexpected continuities as well as unexpected findings made possible by adopting a feminist perspective Teases out linkages between various forms of political violence against women but increasingly also by women Discusses theoretical and methodological innovation in feminist research on war This book will be essential reading for advanced students and scholars of Security Studies Gender and Conflict Women and War Feminist International Relations and Research Methods Routledge Handbook of Critical Terrorism Studies Richard Jackson, 2016-04-14 This new handbook is a comprehensive collection of cutting edge essays that investigate the contribution of Critical Terrorism Studies to our understanding of contemporary terrorism and counterterrorism Terrorism remains one of the most important security and political issues of our time After 9 11 Critical Terrorism Studies CTS emerged as an alternative approach to the mainstream study of terrorism and counterterrorism one which combined innovative methods with a searching critique of the abuses of the war on terror This volume explores the unique contribution of CTS to our understanding of contemporary non state violence and the state s response to it It draws together contributions from key thinkers in the field who explore critical questions around the nature and study of terrorism the causes of terrorism state terrorism responses to terrorism the war on terror and emerging issues in terrorism research Covering a wide range of topics including key debates in the field and emerging issues the Routledge Handbook of Critical Terrorism Studies will set a benchmark for future research on terrorism and the response to it This handbook will be of great interest to students of terrorism studies political violence critical security studies and IR in general Bertrand Russell and Albert Einstein - Builders of Peace Claudio Giulio Anta, Bertrand Russell and Albert Einstein had very different cultural backgrounds and personalities At the same time they were united in their tenacious battle for peace it began with the Great War and culminated in their famous 1955 Manifesto Through various kinds of pacifism they sought to encapsulate the dilemmas and problems that derived from the changed political conditions of his time the beginning of the Great War the creation and failure of the League of Nations the affirmation of totalitarian regimes the outbreak of the Second World War the origin of the atomic age and the escalation of the Cold War the establishment of the UN with its political and institutional weakness and the need for a world government in the form of a world federation Their reflections on the subject of peace led them into dialogue with some of the greatest figures of their time R Rolland Th Woodrow Wilson V I Lenin F D Roosevelt J F Kennedy N Khrushchev F Castro S Freud L Szil rd and E Reves

Beyond Mothers, Monsters, Whores Caron E. Gentry, Laura Sjoberg, 2015-08-15 Beyond Mothers Monsters Whores takes the suggestion in Mothers Monsters Whores that it is important to see genderings in characterizations of violent women and to use critique of those genderings to retheorize individual violence in global politics It begins by demonstrating the interdependence of the personal and international levels of global politics in violent women s lives but then shows that this interdependence is inaccurately depicted in gender subordinating narratives of women s violence Such narratives the authors argue are not only normatively problematic on the surface but also intersect with other identifiers such as race religion and geopolitical location

Modern Chinese Theologies Chloë Starr, 2023-06-20 This is the first volume in a series of three exploring modern Chinese theology This volume covers Mainland and Mainstream church theologians of mainland China who were predominantly associated with mainline or missionary established denominations In the post 1949 era of the People s Republic this translates into theologians and theological movements associated with the state authorized church the Chinese Catholic Patriotic Association and the Protestant Three Self Patriotic Movement The volume is broadly chronological with each Part forming a thematic unity Part I covers Republican and Wartime Theologies with seven chapters exploring theologies of resistance ethics and themes of indigenization and Sinicization Part II considers Protestant Denominational Developments in the first half of the twentieth century the complex legacy of mission history in China and the relationship between denominational church belonging and theological development Part III Reform Era Theologies and Methodological Considerations begins in the height of the Maoist era and addresses the changing relationship between Christian and Communist thought in the writings of TSPM theologians the theological use of China s Christian past and the development of Roman Catholic theological education in the twenty first century The sixteen essays of the volume represent a new generation of critical voices from the mainland Hong Kong and North America The volume opens up the critical questions that have galvanized the modern Chinese church who are we as Chinese Christians How can our Christian faith serve the nation What form should an indigenous church take and offers new perspectives for a contemporary audience

This American Moment Caron E. Gentry, 2018-08-01 According to this book the United States is currently in a moment of crisis fomented by anxieties around race and gender politics Unlike fear which is usually focused on a particular object anxiety is indeterminate and uncertain It is also the emotion that led to the election and continued support of President Trump But Caron Gentry says that we can deal with this anxiety in a productive way To do so she turns to Reinhold Niebuhr whose philosophy of Christian realism has been an abiding influence on foreign policy since the Cold War According to Niebuhr Man s capacity for justice makes democracy possible but man s inclination to injustice makes democracy necessary Anxiety is central to Niebuhr s ideas an emotion that is abiding because we lack control over the circumstances of our lives In turn anxiety prompts a desire for unity but also an intolerance for difference Niebuhr suggests that anxiety can be dealt with destructively or creatively and that power must be balanced to prevent destructive action Gentry is critical of Niebuhr saying that he gives in to destructive tendencies in humans by elevating power above other more creative solutions In This American Moment she offers feminist Christian realism as an alternate approach to anxiety in international politics Gentry s feminist Christian realism differentiates itself from Niebuhr s Christian realism by re engaging the importance of love and relationships over power It suggests that we can arrive at creative solutions to anxiety through a conversation about the imago dei and the inherent commitments to community borne of one s relationship with God including the recognition of obligation in the face of vulnerability Throughout Gentry applies her ideas to the problems of police brutality women s reproductive health and the rise in fascist politics
