Mistrusting A Memory:

Memory William Stokes (of the Royal Polytechnic Institution), 1873      Delight and power in speech Leonard G. Nattkemper, George Wharton James, 2025-03-02 Delight and Power in Speech is a vibrant anthology that traverses the vast landscape of oratory and eloquence exploring the myriad ways in which language can inspire persuade and empower This collection offers a rich tapestry of literary styles from the rhythmic and timeless beauty of classic speeches to the dynamic and engaging narratives of contemporary oratory Within its pages the anthology celebrates the diversity and significance of speech making as an art form with standout pieces that resonate with the power of words while embodying a range of human experiences and emotions Edited by Leonard G Nattkemper and George Wharton James this collection hails speech as both an art and a catalyst for change reflecting a deep understanding of its transformative impact throughout history The contributors to Delight and Power in Speech are a distinguished assembly of voices each bringing their unique perspective and expertise to the theme of eloquence Their collective oeuvre is a testament to the enduring influence of historical and cultural movements that have shaped the art of speech By blending insights from varied backgrounds from literature to social activism this anthology encapsulates the vast potency of spoken word as a communal experience that transcends time and place This anthology is highly recommended for readers who wish to immerse themselves in the art of speech and gain a deeper appreciation of its dynamic power and impact Delight and Power in Speech invites audiences to explore the interplay of voices styles and themes providing a comprehensive understanding that is both educational and profound It encourages a dynamic dialogue between the past and the present offering readers an enriching experience that highlights the intricacies and beauty of oratory within a single captivating volume      Stokes's System of Memory William Stokes (of the Royal Polytechnic Institution.), 1884      Sholl's Humanitome ... Clarence Vreeland Sholl, 1936      Story/telling Bronwen Ann Levy, Ffion Murphy, 2001 Story telling is an eclectic and fascinating collection of stories and stories about stories With passion and verve some of Australia's finest writers range through vast territory exploring new directions in film and media enigmas and creativity histories of mothering narratives of indigenous and migrant experience folk country and multicultural music traditions and dilemmas of interpretation These writers appreciate the power of stories for good and ill They interrogate narratives of Australia's past and present and call for new stories for changing times We hear voices raised one moment subdued the next as if we were sitting in the Forum tent at the Woodford Festival knowing that here and just beyond in paint dance music and words stories are happening in delicious abundance      Women in Neoliberal Postfeminist Television Drama Cat Mahoney, 2019-11-07 In this insightful book Cat Mahoney offers a fascinating analysis of contemporary TV dramas such as Home Fires Land Girls and The Bletchley Circle Developing the idea that history is told through the preoccupations of the present she argues compellingly that these are postfeminist dramas which work through troubling ideas about heteronormative romance domesticity beauty and whiteness while reinforcing the idea that feminism as a political movement is not necessary A bold and original contribution to television studies gender studies and popular history Rosalind Gill City University of London UK By examining contemporary television drama set during and immediately after the Second World War this book illustrates the ways in which postfeminism has shaped representations of women in contemporary culture Mahoney offers a new perspective to debates that have previously been concerned with questions of historical accuracy She argues that depictions of women from the past in modern television drama spawn from the neoliberal postfeminist media climate which originated in the 1990s These depictions respond to a cultural need to naturalise and de historicise a version of neoliberal postfeminist femininity that is compatible with the current media climate and far more reflective of the concerns of the present than any real or lived experience of women in the past The result of this process of naturalisation is the assertion that postfeminist values are natural and eternal rather than a product of the 1980s economic turn and the present political moment By identifying and interrogating postfeminist norms within four television drama series produced since the 2008 financial crash this book argues that postfeminism is a dominant structuring force in their depiction of female characters and of the past Memory's Harkback Through Half-a-century, 1808 to 1858 Frederick Edward
