Anthropology of Tourism Maximiliano E. Korstanje, Vanessa GB Gowreesunkar, 2024-12-06 With a special focus on social and cultural aspects of tourism and travel this novel work brings out the latest in anthropology of tourism by laying the foundations of a new understanding of the intersection between tourism and social science. The volume offers an eclectic selection of topics that discuss the nature and evolution of tourism anthropology over the decades. It reflects on how tourism development affects social change. The book considers tourism's new problems and old solutions after the new normal created by the COVID 19 pandemic and its effect on the tourism industry. Chapters discuss the influence of sociodemographic characteristics of local community perceptions toward conservation and tourism tourism destinations that embrace smart technology how human rights affect tourism choices the impact of borders biopolitics and travel bans on tourism the growth of dark and thana tourism and more

Planning and Managing the Experience Economy in Tourism Augusto Costa, Rui, Brandão, Filipa, Breda, Zelia, Costa, Carlos, 2021-12-03 Tourism is facing a new paradigm that has been brought on by the introduction of experiences in the development management and promotion of tourism. Associating experiences to tourism destination and products allows tourists to relate to their vacations differently and helps to fuel a destination's competitiveness and compliance with new needs and motivations that are being driven by the tourists. When properly designed managed and developed tourism experiences can contribute to the destination's overall sustainability by maximizing tourism's positive impacts and fostering their spillover to local communities. Planning and Managing the Experience Economy in Tourism is an essential reference book that seeks to advance research on tourism experience as well as investigate how tourism experiences can create and increase tourism competitiveness. The book explores how the experience concept has evolved in the last decade alongside the needs and motivations of consumers and how it can be conceptualized designed managed and implemented both at the tourism firm and destination levels. Delving further into concepts like creative tourism destination attributes and smart experiences this book serves as a dynamic resource for travel agencies tourism managers tourism professionals marketers destination managers government officials policymakers academicians students tourism officials planners and researchers

Managing Visitor Experiences in Nature-based Tourism Julia N. Albrecht, 2021-03-19 This book focuses on the experiences of tourists visiting nature based destinations exploring current knowledge and providing insights into conceptual issues through the use of empirical evidence from five continents. Presented as three topics the contents discuss tourism and naturebased experiences by looking at the role and relevance of nature and the uniqueness of such experiences. The book identifies visitor management challenges and provides explanations for the solutions reached. The final section takes a more overarching destination management perspective that transcends the tourism product or business level and focuses on destination and generic issues like indicators or marketing implications. The book also includes research based case studies which contribute to an overall understanding of the core issues involved in
