Paul and First-Century Letter Writing E. Randolph Richards, 2025-07-29 Traditional Christian art depicts Paul the letter writer pen in hand attentive to the Spirit We might think we know better and imagine him pacing in agitation as he rapidly dictates to a secretary his letter to the Galatians But in reality neither of these pictures is accurate In Paul's day producing a letter was a time consuming and costly business And we have ample resources from the ancient world to piece together what it must have been like A secretary was usually part of the picture But so were notes drafts corrections and careful rewrites not to speak of scratchy pens sooty ink and coarse papyrus Interestingly there is evidence that Paul involved his missionary team in the writing of letters And then came the delivery over land and sea the reading and circulation as well as the epistolary afterlife of copying collecting and storing E. Randolph Richards has extensively studied ancient letter writing and secretaries Informed by the historical evidence and with a sharp eye for telltale clues in Paul's letters he takes us into this world and places us on the scene with Paul the letter writer What first appears to be just a study of secretaries and stationery turns out to be an intriguing glimpse of Paul the letter writer that overthrows our preconceptions and offers a new perspective on how this important portion of Christian Scripture came to be Paul, Apostle to the Nations Walter F. Taylor, 2012 Who was Paul what did he do what did he write Walter F. Taylor sets out to bring together a wealth of contemporary perspectives in a clear and accessible synthesis bringing to bear on his subject the best of recent social scientific and cultural anthropological thinking on Paul An appendix presents a clear summary of issues related to Paul's thought on gender and sexuality

The Making of the New Testament Arthur G. Patzia, 2025-08-28 The story of the making of the New Testament is one in which scrolls bumped across cobbled Roman roads and pitched through rolling Mediterranean seas finally finding their destinations in stuffy dimly lit Christian house churches in Corinth or Colossae There they were read aloud and reread handled and copied forwarded and collected studied and treasured And eventually they were brought together to make up our New Testament This revised and expanded edition of The Making of the New Testament is a textbook introduction to the origin collection copying and canonizing of the New Testament documents Like shrewd detectives reading subtle whispers of evidence biblical scholars have studied the trail of clues and pieced together the story of these books Arthur Patzia tells the story answering our many questions How were books and documents produced in the first century What motivated the early Christians to commit teaching and narrative and vision to papyrus How were the stories and sayings of Jesus circulated handed down and shaped into Gospels What do we know about ancient letter writing secretaries and copy shops Why were four Gospels included instead of just one How were Paul's letters sent here and there gathered into a single collection Who decided and by what criteria which documents would be included in the New Testament Explore these questions and more about these Scriptures whose everyday gritty story rings true to their extraordinary message the palpable mystery of the Word made flesh The Apostle Paul Porter, 2016 There are many introductions to the life thought and letters of Paul the apostle Some concentrate upon his life while others focus upon his thought and still others on his letters A few of them like this book try to integrate all three of them including on occasion material from the book of Acts into a useful portrait of the man and what he said and thought as revealed through his letters from preface

The Corinthian Correspondence Frank W. Hughes, Robert Jewett, 2021-10-19 In The Corinthian Correspondence Frank W. Hughes and Robert Jewett argue that there were eight original letters by the Apostle Paul to the church in Corinth In the first part of the book they use literary and redaction criticism to show the reasons for the partition theory of 1 and 2 Corinthians Analyzing each of the eight letters and letter fragments using rhetorical criticism they show how the original Corinthian letters were edited and reshaped into 1 and 2 Corinthians in the New Testament After reflections on the rhetoric of these letters and the historical meaning of the reshaping of the images of Paul a final chapter traces the consequences of the reshaping of the Corinthian correspondence and the adoption of the bound book codex instead of the original papyrus scrolls Several figures help the reader understand the redactional process and a new translation of the eight reconstructed Corinthian letters is provided

Jesus, Contradicted Michael R. Licona, 2024-05-28 The differences and discrepancies in the Gospels constitute the foremost objections to their reliability and the credibility of their message Some have tried to resolve Gospels contradictions with strained harmonization efforts Many others conclude that the Gospels are hopelessly contradictory and therefore historically unreliable accounts of Jesus In Jesus Contradicted New Testament scholar Michael Licona shows how the genre of ancient biography to which the Gospels belong actually allows biographers to be flexible in how they report events construct a narrative and make an argument Licona demonstrates that the intentional changes to the Jesus tradition by the Evangelists reveal that the differences in how the Gospels report events are not grounds for their rejection Instead they are a result of the Gospel writers employing standard literary conventions common in their time for writing ancient biography Licona introduces readers to the genre of ancient biography through Plutarch who wrote 48 of the 90 extant biographies written within 150 years of Jesus giving numerous examples of compositional devices employed by Plutarch and comparing them with instances in the Gospels where the Evangelists appear to use similar techniques Licona also examines Theon's Progymnasmata a first century textbook that provides six techniques for paraphrasing one's sources when writing a narrative In doing so he helps readers understand why the Gospels report many events differently Finally Licona concludes by addressing the thorny question of whether the editorial moves commonplace in ancient biography are compatible with the doctrines of the divine inspiration and the inerrancy of Scripture Rather than trying to resolve discrepancies by bending the Gospel narrative which risks making them say things they aren't saying Jesus Contradicted situates the Gospels within their proper context and helps readers account for differences in the Gospels in a cohesive and historically cogent way

Religious Conflict from Early Christianity to the Rise of Islam Wendy Mayer, Bronwen Neil, 2013 The essays in this volume engage a variety of inter and intra religious conflicts ranging from the first to eighth centuries CE Given the political and religious tensions in the world today this volume is well positioned to find relevance and meaning in societies still grappling with the monotheistic religions of Judaism Christianity and Islam

Letters and Homilies for Hellenized Christians, Volume 2 Ben Witherington III, Ben Witherington, 2006 This is a set of three volumes extending Ben Witherington's innovative socio rhetorical analysis of New Testament books to the latter Pauline and non Pauline corpora A second volume will continue the focus on letters and homilies for Hellenized Christians 1 Peter while a third will focus on letters and homilies for Jewish Christians Hebrews James and Jude By dividing the volumes according to the socio religious contexts for which they were written Witherington sheds fresh light on the documents their provenance character and importance Throughout Witherington shows his thorough knowledge of recent literature on these texts and focuses his attention on the unique insights brought about through socio rhetorical analysis that either reinforces or corrects those gleaned from other approaches Strikingly based on his rhetorical analysis of the Pastorals he makes the case for Luke as Paul's amanuensis for these letters He also makes a strenuous argument against New Testament pseudepigrapha Bridging the Horizons sections point to the relevance of the text for believers today making this volume of special value to pastors and general readers as well as students and scholars
