Domestic Violence George Grant (Jr.),2005 Each title in the Allyn Bacon Johnson Grant Casebook Series presents three to four in depth cases in a different topic area prefaced by an introduction to generalist social work practice Allyn Bacon Casebook Series for Domestic Violence

First Edition by Jerry Johnson and George Grant provides students with personal and intimate glimpses into the thinking and actions of experienced practitioners working with clients coping with domestic violence. The contributors to this casebook combined many decades of social work experience and teaching to create a one of a kind tool for students to study and analyze how practitioners think about practice. The authors move beyond the belief that practice involves finding correct interventions to solve client problems and instead invite students to review and challenge the work of others to help them understand what compromises important practice decision with real clients in real practice settings. A Child Interviewer's Guide Wendy Bourg, 1999-02-17. The authors' understanding of the clinical realities of child interviewing and their ability to integrate these with current research make this book a unique synopsis of the art and science of forensic interviewing of children. A Child Interviewer's Guidebook is an invaluable reference for child interviewers in advocacy and medical assessment centers, child protection workers, law enforcement personnel, instructors in social work and psychology, medical professionals and attorneys. Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09. Assessing Dangerousness Jacquelyn Campbell, 1995. Research and clinical expertise are brought together in this practical volume to examine whether the following violence can be predicted: battered women being killed by their partners, battered women killing their partners, children being physically and/or sexually abused, and sexual offenders and batterers re-offending. Following an introduction to theoretical and clinical issues involved in the prediction of violence, the contributors present research and theory in language that is accessible to clinicians. They discuss accurate measurement using tested instruments, the role of clinical observations, and health and judicial implications. Women Studies Abstracts, 2000.
