A Memoir of the Life of Robert Henley, Earl of Northington, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain (Classic Reprint) Robert Henley, 2017-10-11 Excerpt from A Memoir of the Life of Robert Henley Earl of Northington Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain It is far from my intention to rank the subject of the present Memoir with the more prominent names in this illustrious list I should do no service to his memory were I to assume for him a place by the side of Nottingham the great father of equity of Somers the bright union of the patriot the statesman and the magistrate or of Hardwicke the most consummate and faultless judge that ever presided in our tribunals About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Noble, 2018-03-24 Excerpt from A Memoir of the Rev Robert Turlington Noble B A Of Sidney Sussex College Cambridge
Missionary to the Telugu People in South India I have been requested by some of my late dear brother s most valued friends earnest supporters of the cause of missions to the heathen to write a Memoir of his life and especially of his labours among the Telugu people of South India where with untiring zeal for twenty five years he exerted himself in educating the higher castes of Hindus in order to raise up a Native Christian Ministry There God graciously granted him such success that his school in Masulipatam has become one of the best in India There a goodly number of Brahmins and young men of high caste have been instructed in sound learning and some at the risk of life and earthly goods have nobly renounced their idolatry and caste distinctions and openly professed the faith of Christ and are now preaching the Gospel to their brethren I have felt it a duty to comply with this request and I consider it a privilege and trust it may prove a blessing to others to trace such a life from its first commencement in Divine grace through a long course of industry self denial and benevolence with its varied trials and successes to its final triumph over sorrow and death It was a noted saying among the wiser heathen To see a good man struggling with adversity is a sight worthy of the gods St Paul in similar language tells us on Divine authority We are a Spectacle to God to angels and to men If this be true of all Christian men how especially is it applicable to the Christian Missionary in heathen lands For where are such important conflicts carried on and where such great and lasting interests involved About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
