Global Perspectives on Project-Based Language Learning, Teaching, and Assessment Gulbahar Beckett, Tammy Slater, 2019-10-08 This volume provides a comprehensive account of project based language learning PBLL which showcases key theoretical approaches empirical research technological tools and research based frameworks to help further PBLL implementation and research. Taking its cue from the conclusions drawn from project based learning more broadly which point to the impact of project based work on learning and development discourse socialization subject engagement and collaborative skills the book highlights how these discussions might be extended and enhanced within the context of language learning. The volume begins with discussions of philosophical and theoretical models of PBLL and is followed by case studies from contributors from a range of learning contexts and geographic regions which demonstrate these models in practice with a focus on the implementation of technology in such instances. The book also introduces resources for aligning projects with government standards in the classroom but also frameworks for researching and assessing PBLL. This comprehensive collection is essential reading for students and researchers in language learning and teaching language education curriculum design and applied linguistics.

The Common Core Companion: The Standards Decoded,

Grades 3-5 Leslie Blauman, Jim Burke, 2014-03-28 With the click of a mouse anyone has access to the standards. So aligning our instruction should be a snap. If only it were that simple. Jim Burke anticipated the challenges and developed the Common Core Companion series for K-12. In his next smart move he deferred to the talents of Leslie Blauman to be author of the 3-5 volume. What makes Leslie Blauman's Common Core Companion that version of the standards you wish you had. It's the way Leslie translates each and every standard for reading, writing, speaking, and listening language and foundational skills into the day to day what you do lesson ideas, best literacy practices, grouping configurations, adaptations for ELL, anchor charts, and so much more. The wisdom and how-to's are all here, page by page. The standards for literature and informational texts put side by side for easier planning. Teaching ideas for each standard. Recommendations on how to cultivate the habits of mind that are critical to meeting the standards including interpersonal skills, collaboration, and perseverance. A glossary of academic language for each standard with adaptations for ELL students. An online bank of graphic organizers, student reproducibles, sample classroom charts, rubrics, and photos. Reproducible planning templates for each standard to help you map out lessons, select books, generate key questions, and more. With 30 years of classroom experience and consulting in schools nationwide, Leslie Blauman brings to this book a keen eye for what teachers need in order to get students in the intermediate grades ready as readers, writers, thinkers, and learners capable of meeting the Common Core's rising expectations in middle school. Leslie's classroom is a working model for child staff development in reading, writing, and critical thinking in collaboration with the Public Education Business Coalition PEBC. When considering the CCSS we need to remember that teachers do not teach standards. Teachers teach kids. A classroom teacher who mixes it up with kids every day. Leslie Blauman teaches as if her hair is on fire.

Leveled Books (K-8) Irene C. Fountas,Gay Su Pinnell,2006 For ten years and in two classic books Irene Fountas and Gay Su Pinnell have described how to analyze the characteristics of texts and select just right books to use for guided reading instruction Now for the first time all of their thinking and research has been updated and brought together into Leveled Books K 8 to form the ultimate guide to choosing and using books from kindergarten through middle school Fountas and Pinnell take you through every aspect of leveled books describing how to select and use them for different purposes in your literacy program and offering prototype descriptions of fiction and nonfiction books at each level. They share advice on the role of leveled books in reading instruction, analyzing the characteristics of fiction and nonfiction texts using benchmark books to assess instructional levels for guided reading, selecting books for both guided and independent reading, organizing high quality classroom libraries, acquiring books and writing proposals to fund classroom library purchases, creating a school book room. In addition, Fountas and Pinnell explain the leveling process in detail so that you can tentatively level any appropriate book that you want to use in your instruction. Best of all, Leveled Books K-8 is one half of a new duo of resources that will change how you look at leveled books. Its companion website, www.FountasandPinnellLeveledBooks.com, is a searchable and frequently updated website that includes more than 18,000 titles. With Leveled Books K-8, you'll know how and why to choose books for your readers and with www.FountasandPinnellLeveledBooks.com, you'll have the ideal tool at your fingertips for finding appropriate books for guided reading. Book jacket: Teaching Middle School Writers Laura Robb, 2010. My whole goal with this book was to come at teaching writing from the angle that matters most: students' perspective. They taught me what I needed to know to make this book live up to their passion for writing. Laura Robb Adolescents have robust and rewarding writing lives outside of school that involve journals, emails, text messages, blogs, and an astounding array of genres. Unlike their personal reading lives that teachers frequently tap into, their personal writings typically exist under the curricular radar that is until now. While grounded in the common schedule constraints and curriculum demands of middle school, Laura Robb's Teaching Middle School Writers offers teachers lessons and routines that are uncommonly attuned to adolescents' developmental and social needs. As she taps into the energy and enthusiasm of adolescents' personal writing lives, Laura presents writing plans that support first drafts, strategies for crafting leads that grab and endings that satisfy, grammar lessons that address writing conventions, editing lessons that have students revise their writing before the teacher reads it, guidelines for grading and responding to student work. Straight from the classroom, writing samples and videos give teachers the opportunity to see how Laura uses compelling questions and powerful mentor texts to teach writing support struggling writers and weave twenty-first century literacies into the writing curriculum. Throughout, teachers learn ways of connecting to students' lives in order to bring out their best writing, their best self. Watch a video overview: Weaving Pictures Into Words Natalie C.
