Yakoupov,2016-08-17 This book provides an overview of the communicative processes that encompass the creation interpretation perception and evaluation of the various phenomena constituting musical art The numerous internal and external communicative links in the spheres of the composer the performer the listener and the musicologist critic links which constitute a complex system of the transmission of musical information are considered from a socio cultural perspective which determines the high social role of the academic genres of music The book will be of use to professional musicians and to all those interested in the acute problems of musicology musical aesthetics the sociology of music and musical pedagogics

Approaches to Communication through Music Margaret Corke,2014-06-03 One of the ways forward when working with those who have little or no speech or limited comprehension of language is to use music In this book tried and tested approaches and activities devised to promote the development of communication and social interaction at a fundamental level are clearly set out The ethos behind this manual is a person centered approach within a structured framework and allowing for differentiation and improvisation according to the learner's individual needs and developmental levels This is a practical guide that contains lots of ideas and original activities for the specialist and non specialist alike It provides original songs and music scores activities and games and suggestions for group work for learners at a variety of levels This book will be helpful to teachers carers therapists and parents who work or live with people with severe or profound and multiple learning difficulties Music teachers and coordinators working in mainstream early years and primary education will also find the songs and activities useful

Music and Taste Wayne John Winter, 1978 Pathways in Christian Music Communication Roberta R. King, 2009-01-01 Life is a pilgrimage For the Senufo of Cote d Ivoire life consists of following the kologo that is the path the road or the way As such kologo is a key Senufo term that speaks of the directions people choose to follow in life A central aspect of following the Christian pathway among Senufo believers occurs through music Music serves as a major communication vehicle that speaks profoundly into the people s lives Thus Pathways in Christian Music Communication addresses the problem of contextualization of Christianity in Africa via the use of a people s indigenous music It focuses on the significance of culturally appropriate songs for effective communication of the Gospel within the African context In providing a history of the development of Christian songs among the Senufo a musical analysis of the songs and music culture identifying communication theory at work within the music making process and a content analysis of an emerging Senufo lyric theology King shows the pivotal role that a people s cultural music plays in integrating a people s worldview and daily lives with biblical teaching Finally King examines the influence and effect of songs in communicating the Gospel by showing how the pathway of a song leads to changes of allegiance to the living God and transformed lives Although set in West Africa essential principles and guidelines for doing ethnomusicological studies within missiology lies at the heart of this work 1787, 00000 000

The Musical Communication of Human Emotions

Andrés Jose Lasaga,2017 Expression of emotion in music and vocal communication Anjali Bhatara,Petri Laukka,Daniel J. Levitin,2014-08-18 Two of the most important social skills in humans are the ability to determine the moods of those around us and to use this to guide our behavior To accomplish this we make use of numerous cues Among the most important are vocal cues from both speech and non speech sounds Music is also a reliable method for communicating emotion It is often present in social situations and can serve to unify a group s mood for ceremonial purposes funerals weddings or general social interactions Scientists and philosophers have speculated on the origins of music and language and the possible common bases of emotional expression through music speech and other vocalizations They have found increasing evidence of commonalities among them However the domains in which researchers investigate these topics do not always overlap or share a common language so communication between disciplines has been limited The aim of this Research Topic is to bring together research across multiple disciplines related to the production and perception of emotional cues in music speech and non verbal vocalizations This includes natural sounds produced by human and non human primates as well as synthesized sounds Research methodology includes survey behavioral and neuroimaging techniques investigating adults as well as developmental populations including those with atypical development Studies using laboratory tasks as well as studies in more naturalistic settings are included Wittgenstein and the Conditions of Musical Communication Hanne Ahonen,2007 This thesis argues against the widely held view that to understand music the listeners must hear musical works and passages as expressive of emotions The argument developed in the thesis arises from Wittgenstein s later account of language It is argued that if his later account of the meaning and the understanding of natural language is applied to the case of music then what follows is a version of musical formalism This is to say that insofar as we can talk about musical communication i e the understanding of musical phrases and their semantic content then the grounds of this communication must reside in the conventional rules of a musical system      On the Specificity of Musical Communication Philip Tagg,1981
