Its principal focus is on the policies and practices of the current ruling party the Justice and Development Party (JDP) which has influenced the process of change, evolution and transformation with regard to secularism and state policies toward religion. Following its foundation in 2001, the JDP developed a unique approach to conceptualising the relationship between state and religion. In contrast to other mainstream parties and political positions both in the past and present it offers an alternative vision and model to that of inherited Kemalist secularism as formulated by Mustafa Kemal Atatürk the founder of modern Turkey and refined by his close associates in the formative period of the Republic. The project draws its findings from in-depth interviews with members of political parties, civil society activists and religious leaders.
