Passive and Active Measurement Neil Spring, George F. Riley, 2011-03-04 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 12th International Conference on Passive and Active Measurement PAM 2011 held in Atlanta GA USA in March 2011. The 24 revised full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 56 submissions. The papers were arranged into seven sessions covering passive measurement, wireless models, bandwidth, automated bots, route avoidance, interdomain protocols, timing, and diagnosis.

Access to Knowledge for Consumers Jeremy Malcolm, 2010. Information Program grantee. Consumers International has released the results of a global survey designed to expose the obstacles consumers face in gaining access to education and cultural materials. The survey was conducted in 13 languages covering 15,000 consumers across 24 countries. The survey found that the biggest barriers that consumers face in accessing copyright works are those created by copyright law. Even so, consumers around the world will choose original copyright works over pirated copies provided that they are available at an affordable price. While borrowing from libraries and other cultural institutions provided a viable alternative for some consumers priced out of original copyrighted works, the survey found that particularly in developing countries, access to libraries is limited and the works they carry are few. Although the authors of the survey saw copyleft initiatives like Open Educational Resources and Free and Open Source Software as great ways to help consumers vault access barriers, they concluded that governments needed to act to address consumers' needs for lower cost original materials to buy, borrow, and access online. The survey forms the first two chapters of Consumers International's new report Access to Knowledge for Consumers: Reports of Campaigns and Research 2008-2010. Publisher description.

From Networks to Netflix Derek Johnson, 2018-01-03. Even as the television industry experiences significant transformation and disruption in the face of streaming and online delivery, the television channel itself persists. If anything, the television channel landscape has become more complex to navigate as viewers can now choose between broadcast, cable, streaming, and premium services across a host of different platforms and devices. From Networks to Netflix provides an authoritative answer to that navigational need, helping students, instructors, and scholars understand these industrial changes through the lens of the channel. Through examination of emerging services like Hulu and Amazon Prime Video, investigation of YouTube channels, and cable outlets like Freeform and Comedy Central, and critiques of broadcast giants like ABC and PBS, this book offers a concrete, tangible means of exploring the foundations of a changing industry.

Streaming Media and Cultural Memory in a Postdigital Society Renira Rampazzo Gambarato, Johannes Heuman, 2024-12-31. This book offers a relevant contribution to the studies of streaming media and transmediality with an original approach of cultural sustainability perfectly intertwined with cultural memory beyond borders. By critically reflecting on popular streaming media series, the book identifies their impact on the global circulation of cultural memory, their learning potential for educational purposes, and the societal challenges and opportunities that emerge from the ubiquitous streaming media penetration and potential for participatory practices It also investigates how series available worldwide on commercial platforms such as Netflix and Max contribute to the global circulation of cultural memories in addition to illuminating the ethical unsustainable and educational concerns involved in the fictionalization of the past Drawing on the authors expertise in media studies and history this transdisciplinary book will interest scholars in the fields of media studies cultural studies memory studies history transmedia studies education postdigital studies television studies social communication sociology and philosophy
