Mutant Message, 1992*      Marlo Morgan's Mutant Message Down Under Marc Bretscher, Marlo Morgan, Cornelia Wicki, 2002      Text, Lies and Cataloging Jana Brubaker, 2018-07-09 What do James Frey's A Million Little Pieces Margaret B Jones Love and Consequence and Wanda Koolmatrie's My Own Sweet Time have in common None of these popular books are what they appear to be Frey's fraudulent drug addiction memoir was really a semi-fictional novel Jones' chronicle of her life in a street gang was a complete fabrication and Koolmatrie was not an Aboriginal woman removed from her family as a child as in her seemingly autobiographical account but rather a white taxi driver named Leon Carmen Deceptive literary works mislead readers and present librarians with a dilemma Whether making recommendations to patrons or creating catalog records objectivity and accuracy are crucial and can be difficult when a book's authorship or veracity is in doubt This informative and entertaining study addresses ethical considerations for deceptive works and proposes cataloging solutions that are provocative and designed to spark debate An extensive annotated bibliography describes books that are not what they seem      Travel Writing from Black Australia Robert Clarke, 2015-11-19 Over the past thirty years the Australian travel experience has been Aboriginalized Aboriginality has been appropriated to furnish the Australian nation with a unique and identifiable tourist brand This is deeply ironic given the realities of life for many Aboriginal people in Australian society On the one hand Aboriginality in the form of artworks literature performances landscapes sport and famous individuals is celebrated for the way it blends exoticism mysticism multiculturalism nationalism and reconciliation On the other hand in the media cinema and travel writing Aboriginality in the form of the lived experiences of Aboriginal people has been exploited in the service of moral panic patronized in the name of white benevolence or simply ignored For many travel writers this irony the clash between different regimes of valuing Aboriginality is one of the great challenges to travelling in Australia Travel Writing from Black Australia examines the ambivalence of contemporary travelers engagements with Aboriginality Concentrating on a period marked by the rise of discourses on Aboriginality championing indigenous empowerment self determination and reconciliation the author analyses how travel to Black Australia has become for many travelers a means of discovering new and potentially transformative styles of interracial engagement

A Paradox of Grace Robert Hall, 2025-09-03 God is all powerful and can lift anything yet he is also all knowing so he can make something he cannot lift The solution to this ancient paradox is found nowhere but here The logical answer explains life s meaning in a beautiful manner This manuscript is a profound exploration of spiritual awakening forgiveness and the nature of Reality It challenges conventional religious beliefs asserting that God did not create the physical world and is unaware of its suffering offering instead a path to true peace beyond illusion The book is structured to first establish core spiritual principles then guide readers through overcoming grief and life s hardships expose the flaws in societal systems like healthcare and ultimately reveal the transformative power of recognizing our eternal nature Anchored in personal revelation and extensive study it invites readers to step beyond fear and embrace Love as their true essence

Who's Who? Maggie Nolan, Carrie Dawson, 2004 Brings together for the first time essays that consider a range of high profile cases of literary hoaxing identity crisis or imposture in Australian literature Critics explore the history of hoaxing and imposture and consider the cultural and political issues at stake Nolan at Australian Catholic University

New Directions in Copyright Law Fiona Macmillan, 2006-02-24 This second volume contains further exploration of the themes considered in Volume 1 namely the theoretical framework of copyright and the convergence divergence and globalisation of copyright

Approaching Australia Harold Bolitho, Chris Wallace-Crabbe, 1998 These papers each by a notable Australian scholar offer several approaches to the Australian experience past present and future The authors hail from different disciplines but what they have in common is their familiarity with the United States and their experience in interpreting their homeland to an American audience As they discuss poetry and politics nationalism and feminism Aboriginal society and urbanization they also explore a common theme the emergence of a distinctive Australian entity and the contribution to it of the United States

Sleeping with Extra-terrestrials Wendy Kaminer, 1999 With both wit and empathy Kaminer takes on what many people hold sacred
