Media Training 101 Sally Stewart, 2003-09-29 Written by a seasoned journalist and public relations professional Media Training 101 is your essential guide to handling the news media A former USA Today reporter and consultant to major companies Sally Stewart leads you through every step in developing a communications blueprint and a strategic public relations plan to support it She shows you how to communicate effectively with the media in any given circumstance and how to control the way your company is portrayed in the media Each chapter includes vignettes anecdotes and real life case studies that help you know what to expect Management Communication James S. O'Rourke, 2010 Strategic communication methods that support the development of ethical and effective managers at all levels of business For professors who know students need effective communication skills to be successful in the business world this text provides a strategic yet practical view of managerial communication In this fourth edition three dozen case studies are provided to help students see how their new skills would work in a real setting A new chapter has also been added on Persuasion examining the science behind influencing decision making in others Management Communication in Transition Communication and Strategy Communication Ethics Speaking Writing Persuasion Technology Listening and Feedback Nonverbal Communication Intercultural and International Communication Conflict Management Business Meetings Meeting the Media Effective communication can make or break an individual career or an entire business By developing powerful techniques to get their message across students can learn to turn ideas into action and success Integrated Risk Management for Leisure Services Robert B. Kauffman, Merry Lynn Moiseichik, 2013-01-30 Integrated Risk Management for Leisure Services provides both students and professionals with a systematic approach to safety By integrating risk management accident prevention and emergency response with information on legal liability Integrated Risk Management for Leisure Services enables leisure service providers to implement strategies to reduce or eliminate bodily injury property damage and financial loss Integrated Risk Management for Leisure Services uses a four phase integrated risk management model The first three phases focus on negligence the accident process and risk management plans to reduce or eliminate injury damage or loss The fourth phase focuses on what to do after an incident occurs to reduce the impact of injury damage or loss Integrated Risk Management for Leisure features several unique aspects for students and professionals in the recreation and park field It covers safety prevention and accident processes in the recreation and parks field Then it addresses how to manage the post incident situation to reduce impacts Last the text integrates these two new areas with the traditional areas of legal liability and risk management planning in an effort to provide safer recreation and park programs The Essential Department Chair Jeffrey L. Buller, 2006-03-15 There are many guides for academic administrators that explore differing philosophies of administration theoretical approaches to management and leadership and new trends in higher education administration Books such as these can inspire department chairs to develop a major new vision for their discipline or even their entire institution But in order to make that vision a reality chairs must know how to excel at the many administrative tasks assigned to them For instance how do you cultivate a potential donor for much needed departmental resources How do you interview someone when your dean assigns you to a committee searching for an administrator in a different academic area How do you fire someone How do you get your department members to work together more harmoniously How do you keep the people who report to you motivated and capable of seeing the big picture This book is about the how of academic administration Based on a series of workshops given by the author in the area of faculty and administrative development each topic deals concisely with the most important information chairs will want to have at their fingertips when faced with a particular challenge or opportunity Intended to be a ready reference that chairs turn to as needed this book emphasizes proven solutions over untested theories and stresses what chairs need to know now in order to be most successful in their administrative positions
