Codependency Jason Goleman,2021-02-09 55% OFF FOR BOOKSTORES NOW Do you want to learn how to be no more codependent Your costumers are looking for this book There is no single agreed upon definition for codependent so it s frequently misused or misunderstood It doesn t refer to simply neediness or attachment issues Codependency occurs in relationships where one person gives up power to their partner However that partner isn t willing or able to fulfill the other s emotional needs in return so the relationship is off balance Very often the person who is given power is an addict an alcoholic or abuser They might be mentally ill and not taking steps to get treatment However negative personality traits such as selfishness immaturity and irresponsibility can also be present in codependent relationships without addiction or mental illness In codependent relationships the person surrendering power enables destructive behavior for the sake of preserving the relationship If someone has a pattern of codependency they will continuously choose partners who can't fulfill their needs and drain all their emotional energy On the other side a narcissist addict abuser chronically selfish person or a person who refuses to get help for a mental illness will seek out partners eager to please and make excuses for them This book covers the following topics What is codependency Are you codependent Are you in a codependent relationship How to avoid codependent relationships Ending a codependent relationship Moving on from a codependent relationship The symptoms and effects of codependency in your relationship How to overcome codependency And much more It's very hard to find out who is going to suffer from codependency because many factors are responsible for this disorder However after doing some research over a few years doctors have found out that codependency often affects a spouse parents siblings friends or co-workers of people afflicted with alcohol or drug dependency Actually codependency is a term used to describe partners living in a relationship with a person suffering from alcoholism or other kind of addiction Codependency is also found among the families where a case of chronic disease or mental illness has been found Today codependency has broadened to describe any codependent person belonging to any kind of dysfunctional family Codependent people have a very low self-esteem and they often look for the solution out of their own thinking These people find it hard to cope with their own identity and emotions and find it hard to be themselves Some try to get rid of their anxious behaviour through some outward means like alcohol or drugs and become addicted to it While the others may develop compulsive behaviours like gambling indiscriminate sexual activity workaholism etc Buy NOW and your customers will have all they need

The New 12 Step Program Tyler Long, 2021-02-28 the complete 12 step guide to recovering from codependence based on a true life story I lost myself to codependency I lost the real me Tyler Christian Long The Tyler Long that should have emerged a better individual is long gone yes he died when I passed out Waking up to a new world I couldn't cope but then I'm dead right and this individual right here doesn't look like me No not with the low self-esteem fear anxiety inability to speak up there is no way this can be me just no way A dead man is even better than I am Why did I have to wake up I don't just get it Why didn't God just allow me to die completely Why would he allow me to pass through all these pains and humiliation Why why why I thought all these to myself as I suffered through an experience that made my lost self be more lost A significant event happened while I was growing up or if I would say it was the event that killed me I tried defending my mum from the abuse of my dad In the process I was killed I had fainted passed out collapsed or whatever name you could call it know that there was a shutting down of the brain at some point in time All I could remember is that the moment I opened my eyes aside from the migraines and pains I realized that my world was also different things were not the way it used to be I was no longer the child everybody once loved and adored but a disgrace and a punching bag I love you mum I was only trying to defend you I remember saying but nobody listened to me I was tagged the stubborn child and hell was loosed on me I became a victim to the cruelty of my family toxicity I became codependent this book contains 12 proven steps on how I was able to recover from
