Knijnenburg,Xinru Page,Pamela Wisniewski,Heather Richter Lipford,Nicholas Proferes,Jennifer Romano,2022-02-09 This open access book provides researchers and professionals with a foundational understanding of online privacy as well as insight into the socio technical privacy issues that are most pertinent to modern information systems covering several modern topics e g privacy in social media IoT and underexplored areas e g privacy accessibility privacy for vulnerable populations cross cultural privacy The book is structured in four parts which follow after an introduction to privacy on both a technical and social level Privacy Theory and Methods covers a range of theoretical lenses through which one can view the concept of privacy The chapters in this part relate to modern privacy phenomena thus emphasizing its relevance to our digital networked lives Next Domains covers a number of areas in which privacy concerns and implications are particularly salient including among others social media healthcare smart cities wearable IT and trackers The Audiences section then highlights audiences that have traditionally been ignored when creating privacy preserving experiences people from other non Western cultures people with accessibility needs adolescents and people who are underrepresented in terms of their race class gender or sexual identity religion or some combination Finally the chapters in Moving Forward outline approaches to privacy that move beyond one size fits all solutions explore ethical considerations and describe the regulatory landscape that governs privacy through laws and policies Perhaps even more so than the other chapters in this book these chapters are forward looking by using current personalized ethical and legal approaches as a starting point for re conceptualizations of privacy to serve the modern technological landscape The book's primary goal is to inform IT students researchers and professionals about both the fundamentals of online privacy and the issues that are most pertinent to modern information systems Lecturers or teachers can assign parts of the book for a professional issues course IT professionals may select chapters covering domains and audiences relevant to their field of work as well as the Moving Forward chapters that cover ethical and legal aspects Academics who are interested in studying privacy or privacy related topics will find a broad introduction in both technical and social aspects

Augmented Communication Richard S. Pinner, 2018-12-15 This book explores the ways in which handheld networked devices can be used to enhance and augment interpersonal communication The author examines in depth how the addition of visual and multimodal input access to online search engines and the inclusion of participants from distant geographical locations either synchronously or asynchronously affects our face to face interactions Presenting research data from several years of autoethnographic observation this balanced work reveals the consequences both positive and negative of technology dependent forms of discourse In doing so this sociolinguistic perspective fills a gap in the current literature and indicates possible future directions for the study of augmented communication It will appeal in particular to students and scholars of sociolinguistics applied linguistics and digital humanities

Voices from the South Amanda Du Preez, 2018-12-01 This volume captures the status of digital humanities within the Arts in South Africa The primary research methodology falls within the broader tradition of phenomenological hermeneutics with a specific emphasis on visual hermeneutics Some of the tools utilised as part of the visual hermeneutic methods are geographic information system GIS mapping sensory ethnography and narrative pathways Digital humanities is positioned here as the necessary engagement of the humanities with the pervasive digital culture of the 21st century It is posited that the humanities and arts in particular have an essential role to play in unlocking meaning from scientific technological and data driven research The critical engagement with digital humanities is foregrounded throughout the volume as this crucial engagement works through images Images as understood within image studies are not merely another form of text but always more than text As such this book is the first of its kind in the South African scholarly landscape and notably also a first on the African continent Its targeted audience include both scholars within the humanities particularly in the arts and social sciences Researchers pursuing the new field of digital humanities may also find the ideas presented in this book significant Several of the chapters analyse the question of dealing with digital humanities through representations of the self as viewed from the Global South However it should be noted that self representation is not the only area covered in this volume The latter chapters of the book discuss innovative ways of implementing digital humanities strategies and methodologies for teaching and researching in South Africa
