Mediation Information And Communication Information And Behavior:

Mediation, Information, and Communication Brent David Ruben, Leah A. Lievrouw, This third volume of Information and Behavior shows broad continuities with previous volumes in this series but it also represents an important evolution. In emphasizing theoretical advances in mediation information and communication processes this volume has unifying themes at the cutting edge of communication research linking communication with areas as far ranging as cognitive psychology, intellectual history, social psychology, policy, and macroeconomics. A sampling of the contents indicates both continuities and discontinuities of communication research embodied in this volume. Contributions include Joseph Turow, Mass Communication as Concept, Gary Grumpert, and Robert Cathcart, A Theory of Mediation, Leah Lievrouw, and T. Andrew Finn, Common Dimensions of Communication, Joshua Meyrowitz, Mediated and Unmediated Behavior, Kathleen Reardon, Teaching Children About AIDS, Sari Thomas, The Death of Intellectual History and the Birth of the Transient Past, Sheizaf Rafaeli, Interacting with Media. The second part of the work emphasizes research and policy in specific information societies and regions, including an opening essay by Everett M. Rogers and follow-up studies by Judith K. Larsen on Silicon Valley, Quentin W. Lindsey on The North Carolina Research Triangle, Luis Fonseca on High Technology in Brazil, Ruyzo Ogasawara on High Technology in Japan, and Mitchell Moss on Telecommunications and Financial Centers. The final two portions of the book cover social theory and cultural processes. They include articles by Jerry Salvaggio and Richard Nelson, Models for Developing Telecommunications and Information Industries; Everett M. Rogers and James Dearing, University Industry Technology Transfer; Frederick Williams, The Communications Revolution Revisited; Rolf Wigand, Recurring Questions about the Information Society; Lee Thayer, Tropes and Things; Gordon L. Miller, The Energy of Intelligence; David Carr, Thinking in Museums; Benjamin J. Bates, Information as an Economic Good; Jorge Schemett, and Daniel Stout, A Time Line of Information Technology.

Interaction and Identity Hartmut B. Mokros, Scholarly interest in issues of self identity has exploded across disciplines within the humanities and social sciences in recent years Common to these concerns are the assumptions that self identity is not an a priori not given or fixed but created in the process of communication This also assumes that social institutions and values are produced and reproduced by individuals in interaction To capture the essential characteristics of a person requires analysis of how the social and psychological intersect in moments of communication Interaction and Identity contributes theoretically and empirically to contemporary scholarly interest in issues of identity Chapters and contributors to this stand alone volume include Part Whole Discovery Stages of Inquiry by Thomas Scheff Communication by Gregory Bateson Internal Muzak An Examination of Intrapersonal Relationships by Linda Lederman The Constitution of Identity as Gendered in Psychoanalytic Therapy Ideology and Interaction by Margaret Carr and The Reconstruction and Negotiation of Cultural Identities in the Age of Globalization by Getinet Belay The multiple disciplines of social research with contemporary interest in identity are ably reflected in Interaction and Identity The authors are drawn from eight disciplines anthropology communication information science linguistics philosophy psychoanalysis psychology and sociology This book will be invaluable to scholars in all these areas above all in communication research as such

Quality in Higher Education

Brent D. Ruben, The concept of quality in higher education is by no means a new one By one set of definitions or another colleges and universities throughout the world have always held the pursuit of excellence as their primary goal Why then has the quality approach developed and popularized in industry and how increasingly applied in health care and government receiving so much attention in higher education at this moment What does this perspective add to the approaches to excellence with which they have long embraced These are the two primary questions that this book seeks to address Chapters and contributors include The New Productivity by Peter F Drucker World War n and the Quality Movement by J M Juran The Quality Approach to Higher Education Context of Concepts for Change by Brent Ruben The Big Questions in Higher Education Today by L Edwin Coate An American Approach to Quality by Marilyn R Zuckerman and Lewis J Hatala Quality in Higher Education Critical Issues in Definition and Assessment by Brent Ruben and Ten Areas for Future Research in Total Quality Management by A Blanton Godfrey The volume is graced with an opening essay by Francis L Lawrence president of Rutgers University Higher education is in the public spotlight today due to the many challenges it now faces rising tuition costs frustration about a tight job market for graduates calls for increased faculty productivity concerns about political correctness and criticisms regarding the use of grant and research funds among others Quality in Higher Education is a particularly timely book that will greatly benefit educators university administrators students and sociologists and all those who are interested in higher education today Alternative and Activist New Media Leah A. Lievrouw,2013-05-06 Alternative and Activist New Media provides a rich and accessible overview of the ways in which activists artists and citizen groups around the world use new media and information technologies to gain visibility and voice present alternative or marginal views share their own DIY information systems and content and otherwise resist talk back to or confront dominant media culture Today a lively and contentious cycle of capture cooptation and subversion of information content and system design marks the relationship between the mainstream center and the interactive participatory edges of media culture Five principal forms of alternative and activist new media projects are introduced including the characteristics that make them different from more conventional media forms and content The book traces the historical roots of these projects in alternative media social movements and activist art including analyses of key case studies and links to relevant electronic resources Alternative and Activist New Media will be a useful addition to any course on new media and society and essential for readers interested in new media activism Mediation, Information, & Communication - Information & Behavior ,1990
