Johnson, 2013-04-15 While more than a million e mails clog the inboxes of Congress each day some legislators can't even find their own websites without the help of their staffers. In fact laptops aren't even allowed on the floor of the House or Senate. But as Dennis W. Johnson demonstrates in Congress Online there are some savvy legislators who are taking advantage of new media to expand their power and influence and the Congressional communications revolution is just beginning. Born out of a Pew Charitable Trusts research project of the same name Congress Online is the definitive guide to electronic politics pointing the way to a system that could forge a new and more immediate connection between legislators and the American people. Muller, 1997-08 A collection of fifty five essays organized around such topics as reconstituted families generational differences career options ethnic and gender identity political correctness entertainment and other issues that serve to define campus life.
