The Wide World of Coding Jennifer Connor-Smith, 2020-04-07 The best part about coding is that anyone with a computer can learn how to do it. From education to healthcare to entertainment, software touches almost every aspect of twenty-first century life. Take a high-level perspective on the types of people who create that software, including many jobs that do not involve writing code at all. Learn about the software development cycle and the huge variety of skills developers draw on, including psychology, mathematics, and art, to create amazing apps and programs. Explore why diversity is needed to prevent bias in design. Learn about the different coding languages and what they are used for, how developers choose a language and tools that simplify coding. Jennifer Connor-Smith breaks down stereotypes about coding as a career that is open only to technology obsessed gamers, revealing ways people use software to improve medical care, nurture dementia patients, promote social justice, and more. Hands-on activities show you how easy it is to learn to think like a coder. The next generation of coders will require diverse teams, creativity, and ethical codes of conduct to create the best and most successful software. Will you be one of them?

Harrison,2017-11-14 At a time when the news cycle turns on a tweet journalism gets confused with opinion and facts are treated as negotiable information applying critical thinking skills to your social media consumption is more important than ever Guy P Harrison an upbeat advocate of scientific literacy and positive skepticism demonstrates how critical thinking can enhance the benefits of social media while giving users the skills to guard against its dangers Social media has more than two billion users and continues to grow Its widespread appeal as a means of staying in touch with friends and keeping up with daily news masks some serious pitfalls misinformation pseudoscience fraud propaganda and irrational beliefs for example presented in an attractive easy to share form This book will teach you how to resist the psychological and behavioral manipulation of social media and avoid the mistakes that millions have already made and now regret Harrison presents scientific studies that show why your subconscious mind loves social media and how that can work against your ability to critically evaluate information Among other things social media reinforces your biases clouds your judgment with images that leave a false impression and fills your brain with anecdotes that become cheap substitutes for objective data The very nature of the technology keeps you in a bubble by tracking your preferences it sends only filtered newsfeeds so that you rarely see anything that might challenge your set notions Harrison explores the implications of having digital friends and the effects on mood self esteem and the cultivation of friendship in the real world He discusses how social media affects attention spans and the ability to consider issues in depth And he suggests ways to protect yourself against privacy invasion cyberstalking biased misinformation catfishing trolls misuse of photos and the confusion over fake news versus credible journalism Talk of Shame Alex Everwood,2017-11-14 Goodbye high school Hello Alpha Chi Somerville University Katie Jill and Beatrice kick off freshman year with high hopes but life doesn t go as planned Old grudges bubble up New friendships aren t what they seem One thing is for sure no one wants to get caught on the Talk of Shame feed the university s unofficial gossip site One bad pic and your reputation is shot Unfortunately that s a lesson learned the hard way TalkOfShame Katie s hard work got her into the prestigious university. Her aunt is paying her tuition on one condition Katie must join a sorority Kappa Kappa Theta (KKT). There's just one problem: Katie was kicked out of the cool clique in high school. Now she's independent and scared to become a sorority girl. But is she using independence to protect herself from forming relationships? Especially if it's with the gorgeous editor of Somerville University's student newspaper Jill. Jill chose Somerville for one reason: Alpha Chi Alpha (AXA). It's the most stunning sorority house on campus and only the prettiest girls become sisters. Jill has always been a southern belle whose confidence and humor have won her lots of friends and quite a few hookups. She has yet to have a steady boyfriend. But that'll happen automatically once becoming a Chi Alpha Right. And then there's Beatrice. The perfect frenemy: something that comes easy to the young coed. A member of Chicago's wealthy elite, Beatrice wears only the best labels, drives only the hottest cars. But her status comes at a price: lasting friendship. Beatrice manipulates others in order to protect herself and her childhood friendship with Katie. Katie was the first one to suffer. Will Somerville give her the chance to reconcile and find her true self? Jill and Beatrice may not always get along. But together they champion and struggle with the ins and outs of Greek Row: a life of hookups, heartbreak, backstabbing, and cheating. Both in and out of the classroom. For fans of Bright Side by Kim Holden, Commencement by J. Courtney Sullivan, and the TV Series Gossip Girl.
