

THE LITTLE MERMAID

Once upon a time, in a kingdom beneath the sea, lived a young mermaid named Ariel. Ariel was the youngest daughter of King Triton, the ruler of the ocean. She was curious and adventurous, always exploring shipwrecks and collecting human artifacts. Despite her father's warnings about the dangers of the human world, Ariel dreamed of living on land.

One day, while exploring a shipwreck, Ariel saw a handsome human prince named Eric. She instantly fell in love with him. When a storm struck and Eric's ship sank, Ariel rescued him and brought him to shore. She sang to him until he woke up, but before he could see her, she dove back into the sea.

Ariel longed to be with Prince Eric and decided to visit Ursula, the sea witch. Ursula was cunning and deceitful. She agreed to help Ariel but demanded a heavy price. Ariel had to give up her voice in exchange for legs. If she didn't receive a kiss of true love from Prince Eric within three days, she would turn back into a mermaid and belong to Ursula forever.

Determined, Ariel agreed and signed the contract. She swam to the surface and transformed into a human. Prince Eric found her on the beach and took her to his castle. Though Ariel couldn't speak, Eric was kind and they spent time together, growing closer each day.
