Reinventing Cinema Chuck Tryon, 2009. For over a century movies have played an important role in our lives, entertaining us often provoking conversation and debate. Now with the rise of digital cinema, audiences often encounter movies outside the theater and even outside the home. Traditional distribution models are challenged by new media entrepreneurs and independent film makers. User-generated video, film blogs, mashups, downloads and other expanding networks. Reinventing Cinema examines film culture at the turn of this century at the precise moment when digital media are altering our historical relationship with the movies. Spanning multiple disciplines, Chuck Tryon addresses the interaction between production, distribution and reception of films, television and other new and emerging media. Through close readings of trade publications, DVD extras, public lectures by new media leaders, movie blogs and YouTube videos, Tryon navigates the shift to digital cinema and examines how it is altering film and popular culture. Perspectives on Marketing Jason I. Miletsky, Michael Hand, 2009. Marketing is not an exact science and marketing issues are often interpreted, defined and approached differently by different people, creating the potential for a disconnect in communication. This is particularly true of the client-agency relationship, which oftentimes looks at a single marketing issue in radically different ways. Perspectives on Marketing is a unique spin on the 'he said, she said' format, giving both the agency side, Jason Miletsky, CEO, PFS Marketwyse, and the client side, Mike Hand, Director of Sports Marketing, Hershey's, a number of topics that deal with marketing and the client-agency relationship. It examines over 100 compelling and important marketing issues that marketers deal with on a regular basis, such as how to best measure ROI, how to determine the best means for reaching an audience and how to craft the most effective message. Each topic is approached from both points of view in a conversational point-counter-point style. This unique approach provides a frank, insightful and enjoyable look into the whole of the marketing process and helps promote understanding between the marketer and the client. The Times Index, 2009.
