Critical Perspectives on Literature and Culture in the New World Order Washima Che Dan,Jason Sanjeev Ganesan,Noritah Omar,2012-11-15 The fifteen chapters in this volume explore both new and tested theoretical perspectives on literature and culture at large this multiplicity of discourses is a reflection of the implicit discontent in conforming to the New World Order and a contestation against hierarchical relationships between countries which inform the social cultural and political climates of weaker nations With the political and economic hegemony of stronger nations weaker nations run the risk of being dominated or at the very least having their own national identity and sovereignty steeped in ambivalence in the face of a globalised culture This volume hopes to bring together critical views in relation to the construction of cultural studies in the Western framework the application of literary theory in the readings of vernacular literature contestation of the mainstream scientific methodology of cultural evaluation the role of English literature in Asian cultures the application of postcolonial theory in literature literary ethics in relation to Islamic literature as well as the Islamic and Western conceptions of democracy More than half of the articles in this collection centre on Islam as a guiding principle or as a context through which critical perspectives are made on literature and culture in today s globalised world order This inadvertent foregrounding of Islam reflects a continuing dialogue on and with Islam and its significant impact on existing academic discourses founded upon Western style scholarship Islamic Postcolonialism Hasan Majed,2015-09-18 Islamic postcolonialism is a theoretical perspective that combines two components which have up until now existed in a state of tension As a secular theory postcolonialism has notably failed to account for Muslim priorities it has for instance had severe problems critiquing the anti Islam polemics of The Satanic Verses as is evidenced by Edward Said's support for Rushdie in spite of his criticism of the stereotypical representation of Islam and Muslims in the West Islamic postcolonialism applies the anti colonial resistant methodology of postcolonialism from a Muslim perspective exploring the continuance of colonial discourse in part of the contemporary western writing about Islam and Muslims This book explores how Islam is depicted and Muslim identities are constructed in four representative works of contemporary British fiction Hanif Kureishi's The Black Album 1995 Monica Ali's Brick Lane 2003 Fadia Faqir's My Name is Salma 2007 and Leila Aboulela's Minaret 2005 Salman Rushdie's The Satanic Verses 1988 is also discussed in terms of its crucial role in fostering what some Muslims might consider polemical and stereotypical positions in writing about Islam

Muslim Women's Lived Experiences and Intersectional Identities Puspa Melati Wan, Saiqa Anne Qureshi, Rosila Bee Mohd Hussain, 2025-02-28 This volume takes a global perspective on intersectionality embodied by Muslim women It addresses questions such as balancing multiple identities lived experiences and complex realities and the role of faith in social roles The chapters debunk the idea of Islam or gender being monoliths They layer faith over gender across the globe and consider migration as an important factor thereby exploring intersectional identities that are understudied and under evaluated The volume overall brings to life Islamic women's lives in all their richness and differences with discussions on social roles positions initiatives and occupations across regions It provides recommendations and suggestions for readers to understand the complex realities of Muslim women as well as serves as a guide for practitioners and policy makers

Aljadid: A Critical Study of the Novels Dr. Roshan Benjamin Khan, 2016-03-23 This is a comparative study of the unaccredited yet formidable five major Indian Muslim women novelists Rokeya Sakhawat Hossain, Zeenuth Futehally, Iqbalunnisa Hussain, Tara Ali Baig and Attia Hossain The book explores their work with regard to themes like patriarchy, feminism, religiosity, nationality, secularity and above all liberty

Their contribution to the growth of novel writing in English cannot go ignored as they created a momentum in writing novel using English language as a medium of combined feminist statements with a message to liberate Muslim women from religious conventions social taboos and a male dominated world The study of their novels also makes us aware of the grit and determination and the sheer hunger of these writers to make their mark to speak out unequivocally against prejudice basically to enlighten us how their personalities were shaped and eventually established Their sensitivities as women give an edge to the entire narrative as does their unprecedeted and undaunted dare to the oppressors In the great tradition of modern and postmodern fiction our writers use their pen to stand up against inequality of any kind and to undo the stereotypes leading themselves by example The Muslim World Book Review ,2007 Islam in British media discourses

Laurens de Rooij,2020-05-09 Media reporting on Islam and Muslims commonly relate stories about terrorism violence or the lack of integration with western values and society Yet there is little research into how non Muslims engage with and are affected by these news reports Inspired by the overtly negative coverage of Islam and Muslims by the mainstream press and the increase in Islamophobia across Europe this book explores the influence of these depictions on the thoughts and actions of non Muslims Building on extensive fieldwork interviews and focus groups Laurens de Rooij argues that individuals negotiate media reports to fit their existing outlook on Islam and Muslims Non Muslim responses to these reports de Rooij argues are not only re productions of local and personal contextuality but are co dependent and co productive to the reports themselves The International Fiction Review ,2007 Bibliographic Index ,2007 French and African Letters
