counselor shares the knowledge gained from study and leading a bereavement support group. This distinctive balance allows the reader to connect with Sherry's feelings and to learn more about the grieving process from Gene's reflections. More than a series of inspirational adages or a steps to survival manual this unique book is a collection of impressions which reassures people they can grow through their grief. Grief should not be avoided. Facing it expressing feelings and learning about the nature of grief are essential to survival. The authors observations of nature and cycles of life are played out in the subtle theme of landscape and are used as a metaphor for spiritual transformation. The chapters are short and could be used a daily devotion. Sherry even writes chapters from the perspectives of her grandchild and mother in law pointing out most deaths involve family members and friends. Although we may feel alone we don't grieve alone.

Getting Your Breath Back After Life Knocks It out of You

K.B.H. Niles, 2011-09-30 Is anyone crying for help God is listening ready to rescue you. If your heart is broken you'll find God right there if you're kicked in the gut he'll help you catch your breath. Psalm 34 1718 The Message translation Has grief knocked your breath out of you. Everybody experiences grief loss and life challenges throughout their lives. Most are unprepared for their grief and the impact it will have. Grief is brutal and has a way of making you feel as though everything good in your life is slowly being crushed leaving you gasping for air. Although painful to experience grief is one of the most powerful teachers you can learn from. When one goes through grief or loss the invaluable opportunity to understand love and know God better immediately begins. He is the key to creating a fuller more purposeful life in spite of grief. In Getting Your Breath Back After Life Knocks It Out of You K B H Niles transparently shares her experiences with grief and loss. She reveals how her relationship with God helped her grieve multiple deaths including the deaths of her sister father and grandparents after she found God in the midst of her pain. How do you get your breath back after life knocks it out of you? K B H Niles explains key oxygens God revealed to her as she studied His Word during times of intense grief. In Getting Your Breath Back After Life Knocks It Out of You you will find how to Develop a treasured relationship with God. Regain your faith and hope. Resolve bitterness guilt and regrets. Find the encouragement you need during grief. Understand the importance of relationships. Value God's time through grief and life. Realize the importance of grieving in your own unique way. Develop gratefulness thankfulness and praise. Experience wellness traditions and enjoyment. Create a fuller more purposeful life.

Don't Take My Grief Away

Doug Manning, 1984-09-05 Gently with warm consoling and practical guidance Doug Manning addresses the painful often disorientation aftermath of the death of a loved one helping the bereaved cope with the emotions and confront the decisions that are an inevitable part of this time of radical life adjustment. Beginning with the premise that grief is not an enemy it is a friend. It is the natural process of walking through the hurt and growing through the walk. Manning helps readers face up to grief move through it and learn to live again. With the first shock of loss a survivor is faced with what seems like an overwhelming number of arrangements that must be made immediately. Don't Take My Grief Away is a complete helpful handbook covering such important areas as the choice of a minister family dynamics during such stressful times and personalizing the funeral service Doug Manning assists us to understand what happens when someone dies to accept it and to face the feelings of loss separation and even guilt that we experience in realistic yet healing way The author provides thoughtful advice for rebuilding a grief shattered life while taking to heart the valuable lessons death and mourning impart to everyone
