A History of Western Choral Music, Volume 1 Chester L. Alwes, 2015-07-15 A History of Western Choral Music explores the various genres key composers and influential works essential to the development of the western choral tradition Author Chester L Alwes divides this exploration into two volumes which move from Medieval music and the Renaissance era up to the 21st century Volume I surveys the choral music of composers including Josquin Palestrina Purcell Handel and J S Bach while detailing the stylistic textual and extramusical considerations unique to the topics covered Consideration of Renaissance music includes both sacred and secular works specifically addressing the growth of sacred music the rise of secular music and the proliferation of sacred polyphony from Josquin to Palestrina Discussion of the Baroque era is organized by geographic location exploring the spread of Baroque style from Italy to German France and England Volume I concludes by examining the aesthetic underpinnings of the early Classical and Romantic eras Framing discussion within the political religious cultural philosophical aesthetic and technological contexts of each era A History of Western Choral Music offers readers specialized insight into major composers and works while providing a cohesive understanding of choral music s place in Western history , The American Organist ,2002

Anthems for Choirs: Fifty anthems for mixed voices Francis Jackson, Philip Ledger, 1973 A Stanford Anthology Charles Villiers Stanford, 2004 18 anthems and motets for SATB and organ The anthology includes a representative sample of Stanford s sacred choral music from across the entire span of his career and in every significant genre from festal pieces for double choir to simple hymn arrangements The volume includes a general introduction with critical apparatus and a table of liturgical use

Epiphany to All Saints for Choirs Malcolm Archer, John Scott, 2004 A uniquely accessible and comprehensive resource for use in church services and concerts throughout the Church s year The volume s 50 SATB pieces both accompanied and unaccompanied are suitable for choirs of all sizes and abilities Provides an excellent choice of pieces for the Principal Feasts champions new approachable and unjustly neglected repertoire spanning all periods and traditions whilst avoiding widely available or difficult music includes many previously unpublished or newly commissioned anthems arrangements and editions by important composers and church musicians contains useful musical and liturgical introductions in addition to full indexes glossaries of additional uses for the repertoire and listings of other suitable pieces not included in the book Organists' Review ,2001

Annunciations: Sacred Music for the Twenty-First Century George Corbett, 2019-05-01 Our contemporary culture is communicating ever increasingly through the visual through film and through music This makes it ever more urgent for theologians to explore the resources of art for enriching our understanding and experience of the Judeo Christian tradition Annunciations Sacred Music for the twenty First Century edited by George Corbett answers this need evaluating the relationship between the sacred and the composition performance and appreciation of music Through the theme of annunciations this volume interrogates how when why through and to whom God communicates in the Old and New Testaments In doing so it tackles the intimate relationship between Scriptural reflection and musical practice in the past its present condition and what the future might hold Annunciations comprises three parts Part I sets out flexible theological and compositional frameworks for a constructive relationship between the sacred and music Part II presents the reflections of theologians and composers involved in collaborating on new pieces of sacred choral music alongside the six new scores and links to the recordings Part III considers the reality of programming and performing sacred works today This volume provides an indispensable resource for scholars and artists working at the interface between theology and the arts and for those involved in sacred music However it will also be of interest to anyone concerned with the ways in which the Divine communicates through word and artistry to humanity

Madrigals and Partsongs Clifford Bartlett, 2001 This collection gathers together nearly sixty of the finest examples of the secular choral repertoire into one volume Due space is given to the magnificent sixteenth century madrigals of England and Italy with favorite works by Gibbons and Morley placed alongside less familiar selections by Lassus Marenzio and Weelkes German and French pieces are also represented for example with Passereau's ever popular Il est bel est bon Works by Haydn and Schubert lead to the nineteenth century repertoire which includes Brahms's lovely Nachtwache from Five Songs Op 104 and Pearsall's exquisite Lay a Garland The survey is completed by Debussy's Trois Chansons de Charles D Orleans and examples of the glorious outpouring of English Romantic partsongs with works by Elgar Parry Stanford Britten Finzi and Vaughan Williams Ranging from the late fifteenth to the twentieth century and spanning all major European countries this is a masterly survey suitable for all choirs Clifford Bartlett has prepared completely new editions of all pre twentieth century pieces going back to the earliest and most reliable manuscript or printed sources English translations are provided to aid understanding with playable keyboard reductions in every case Early Music Review, 1999 Eastern Orthodox Christianity and American Higher Education Ann Mitsakos Bezzerides, Elizabeth H. Prodromou, 2017-01-15 Over the last two decades the American academy has engaged in a wide ranging discourse on faith and learning religion and higher education and Christianity and the academy Eastern Orthodox Christians however have rarely participated in these conversations The contributors to this volume aim to reverse this trend by offering original insights from Orthodox Christian perspectives that contribute to the ongoing discussion about religion higher education and faith and learning in the United States The book is divided into two parts Essays in the first part explore the historical experiences and theological traditions that inform and sometimes explain Orthodox approaches to the topic of religion and higher education in ways that often set them apart from their Protestant and Roman Catholic counterparts Those in the second part problematize and reflect on Orthodox thought and practice from diverse disciplinary contexts in contemporary higher education The contributors to this volume offer provocative insights into philosophical questions about the relevance and application of Orthodox ideas in the religious and secular academy as well as cross disciplinary treatments of Orthodoxy as an identity marker pedagogical framework and teaching and research subject A Blow Anthology John Blow, 1996 John Blow was arguably London's most influential musician during the last four decades of the seventeenth century as highly regarded as his famous pupil Henry Purcell Their full anthems reveal the last great flowering of the English choral tradition of Byrd and Gibbons and the eight pieces in this anthology show a uniquely individual expressive style with unexpected dissonances and harmonic turns All these anthems are easy and appealing with texts that are suitable for general purpose liturgical use by church and cathedral choirs The anthology also has an introduction which puts the music in its historical context The Voice of Chorus America ,2001

The British Catalogue of Music ,2004 Advent for Choirs Malcolm Archer, Stephen Cleobury, 2000-04-06 This unique collection approaches Advent afresh drawing together 52 beautiful and accessible pieces that span the whole gamut of periods styles and traditions Advent for Choirs is the perfect musical and liturgical resource for all church cathedral and concert choirs and includes approachable new settings unjustly neglected music and works not easily available elsewhere

Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Composers on Composing for Choir David N. Childs, René Clausen, Libby Larsen, Morten Lauridsen, Kirke Mechem, James Mulholland, Z. Randall Stroope, André Jerome Thomas, Gwyneth Walker, 2007 Each composer addresses the following topics biography creative process the relationship between text and music views from the composer to the conductor the relationship between the composer and the commissioning party views on the teaching of composition influential individuals ten works all choral conductors at all levels should study the future of choral music comprehensive list of his/her works for choir Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004
