Kurlansky, 2006    Migration and Membership Regimes in Global and Historical Perspective, 2013-07-25 In Migration and Membership Regimes editors Ulbe Bosma, Gijs Kessler and Leo Lucassen bring together ten essays in an analytical framework which looks beyond the Transatlantic migration of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in a deliberate attempt to incorporate the experience of earlier periods and other continents into historical migration studies. The focus of analysis is on the mechanisms of interaction between polities from city states and emerging statehoods to empires and migrants joining or taking over these polities by force, choice, or co-optation. It reconceptualises the migrant state relationship as an engagement over the terms of membership and explores the variety of different outcomes this has had across time and space. Contributors include Nicholas Breyfogle, Derek Heng, Ralph W. Mathisen, Christel M. Iler, Mu-chou Poo, Susan Elizabeth Ramirez, Ibrahima Thiaw, Maartje van Gelder, Mark D. Varien.    The Big Oyster Mark Kurlansky, 2006. The author takes an insightful look at the influence of the oyster on four centuries of New York history, culture, economics, and culinary trends.

The Anti-enlightenment Tradition Zeev Sternhell, 2010-01-01. In this masterful work of historical scholarship Zeev Sternhell, an internationally renowned Israeli political scientist and historian, presents a controversial new view of the fall of democracy and the rise of radical nationalism in the twentieth century. Sternhell locates their origins in the eighteenth century with the advent of the Anti-Enlightenment far earlier than most historians. The thinkers belonging to the Anti-Enlightenment, a movement originally identified by Friedrich Nietzsche, represent a perspective that is antirational and that rejects the principles of natural law and the rights of man Sternhell asserts that the Anti Enlightenment was a development separate from the Enlightenment and sees the two traditions as evolving parallel to one another over time He contends that J G Herder and Edmund Burke are among the real founders of the Anti Enlightenment and shows how that school undermined the very foundations of modern liberalism finally contributing to the development of fascism that culminated in the European catastrophes of the twentieth century Science John Michels (Journalist),1891 Vols for 1911 13 contain the Proceedings of the Helminothological Society of Washington ISSN 0018 0120 1st 15th meeting
