Painful Questions Facing Struggles With Faith:

Painful Questions Gary L. Watts, 1999 We want a world without pain fear or heartache When trouble comes our way we cry Why me Why do we suffer Why does God let bad things happen to good people To find answers we must look beneath the surface of life using the eyes of faith Is anyone listening We shake our fists at heaven We plead our case before God and others We are sure we deserve better In this certainty lie seeds of hope Will someone help ease the pain For this to happen we must dare to build something good out of life's broken pieces This is the work of love As we join our answers together like pieces of a puzzle the picture begins to look like a cross reminding us of God's presence Bridges: Ministering to Those
