

Vampire kidnapping

Created and written by Lisa Richardson

Dark, foggy and mysterious was the atmosphere of the night when the dangerous adventure began.

Kindy had just finished work at the Custer's Bar, in the centre of an called 'quietest part of town', the meaning ended on this night.

Kindy was the kind of girl who had lots of friends, a few adventures and an amazing boyfriend who was charming, funny and the man that most women would die for. He had the dark hair, tanned complexion, amazing looks and build, really desired the majority of the town, and a lot of guys are a little jealous of.

It was Saturday 14th May 2011 just after midnight, and the streets were deserted. The only thing Kindy could hear was the sound of her own heels clicking on the cracked pavement. As she was passing the dark empty stores she noticed a store shop that she has always liked but could never afford. In big letters on the window was the word SALE, the word she has always longed to read at this particular shop. She peered in through the window, between the letters S and A, just to discover a pair of black knee length suede boots which were reduced. As she strained her green coloured eyes to see the new lower price, that she could maybe afford, she noticed a shadow cover her whole view. As she slowly turned, she hoped it was someone from the bar trying to scare her. As she faced the shadow, she noticed it was definitely not a person shadow.

Her green, warm coloured eyes drained to an empty pool of black, her face drained of colour, her mouth went dry and her body went limp. She was obviously too scared to scream, she couldn't even squeak.

The shadow was not the anything she expected to see in her life, but alone standing in front of her. She glared into the pale face of a vampire, whose eyes looked deep, dark and full of hunger. His black hair was slicked back with a tint of yellow glow from the street lamp behind him. His red lips parted to show gleaming white and very long sharp teeth. She felt like she was under a spell or maybe hypnosis. Her vision went black and she felt herself fall to the ground.

She opened her eyes to find herself staring up at nothing but darkness. At first she just thought she was in her comfy double bed wrapped in her soft double duvet in her brightly coloured bedroom, in her cosy little downtown apartment. All of a sudden she felt herself being unable to breathe, feeling an overwhelming sense of claustrophobia. She tried to sit up but she just felt her head had on something above her, which covered the whole of her body. She started to kick and wriggle, but with all her might she couldn't move. She screamed and panicked, tears streaming down her face but whatever was above her was not going to budge. She was fighting for air, her throat was going dry. As she started to give up hope she heard a noise which sounded something like wood scraping. She saw a tiny speck of light at the bottom of her feet, then a bit more and soon her whole vision was litened by light. It took a while to focus and adjust. The light was not the warm sun shining through a large window but lots of candles burning in a dark room. As she controlled her breathing she found the energy to sit up in the bed which she was lying in.

Just as her head reached the edge of the bed she noticed the light which she would never forget, although she didn't seem afraid anymore. Instead, she simply drifted out of whatever she was in
