Muslim Friends Windows Workshop:

American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 17:3 Mehdi Golshani, Katherine Bullock, Karim Douglas Crow, Tahir Beg, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Deep Equality in an Era of Religious Diversity Lori G. Beaman, 2017 While religious conflict receives plenty of attention the everyday negotiation of religious diversity does not Questions of how to accommodate religious minorities and of the limits of tolerance resonate in a variety of contexts and have become central preoccupations for many Western democracies What might we see if we turned our attention to the positive narratives and success stories of the everyday working out of religious difference Rather than tolerance and accommodation and through the stories of ordinary people this book traces deep equality which is found in the respect humor and friendship of seemingly mundane interactions Deep Equality in an Era of Religious Diversity shows that the telling of such stories can create an alternative narrative to that of diversity as a problem to be solved It explores the non event or micro processes of interaction that constitute the foundation for deep equality and the conditions under which deep equality emerges exists and sometimes flourishes Through a systematic search for and examination of such narratives Lori G Beaman demonstrates the possibility of uncovering revealing and recovering deep equality a recovery that is vital to living in an increasingly diverse society In achieving deep equality identities are fluid shifting in importance and structure as social interaction unfolds Rigid identity imaginings especially religious identities block our vision to the complexities of social life and press us into corners that trap us in identities that we often ourselves do not recognize want or know how to escape Although the focus of this study is deep equality and its existence and persistence in relation to religious difference deep equality is located beyond the realm of religion Beaman draws from the work of those whose primary focus is not in fact religion and who are doing their own deep equality work in other domains illustrating especially why equality matters By retelling and exploring stories of negotiation it is possible to reshape our social imaginary to better facilitate what works which varies from place to place and time to time Islam Is a Foreign Country Zareena Grewal, 2014 Considers the question what does it mean to be Muslim and American In Islam Is a Foreign Country Zareena Grewal explores some of the most pressing debates about and among American Muslims what does it mean to be Muslim and American Who has the authority to speak for Islam and to lead the stunningly diverse population of American Muslims Do their ties to the larger Muslim world undermine their efforts to make Islam an American religion Offering rich insights into these questions and more Grewal follows the journeys of American Muslim youth who travel in global underground Islamic networks Devoutly religious and often politically disaffected these young men and women are in search of a home for themselves and their tradition Through their stories Grewal captures the multiple directions of the global flows of people practices and ideas that connect U S mosques to the Muslim world By examining the tension between American Muslims ambivalence toward the American mainstream and their desire to enter it Grewal puts contemporary debates about Islam in the context of a long history of American racial and religious exclusions Probing the competing obligations of American Muslims to the nation and to the umma the global community of Muslim believers Islam is a Foreign Country investigates the meaning of American citizenship and the place of Islam in a global age Seminar ,2007 CIIR Round Table on Inter-Faith Collaboration for Peace and Development in West Papua and Mindanao Fernando T.
