Brown, Marsha S. Bordner, 2017-08-08

Inspiring memoir of Colonel Harold H Brown one of the 930 original Tuskegee pilots whose dramatic wartime exploits and postwar professional successes contribute to this extraordinary account Keep Your Airspeed Up The Story of a Tuskegee Airman is the memoir of an African American man who through dedication to his goals and vision overcame the despair of racial segregation to great heights not only as a military aviator but also as an educator and as an American citizen Unlike other historical and autobiographical portrayals of Tuskegee airmen Harold H Brown's memoir is told from its beginnings not on the first day of combat not on the first day of training but at the very moment Brown realized he was meant to be a pilot He revisits his childhood in Minneapolis where his fascination with planes pushed him to save up enough of his own money to take flying lessons Brown also details his first trip to the South where he was met with a level of segregation he had never before experienced and had never imagined possible During the 1930s and 1940s longstanding policies of racial discrimination were called into question as it became clear that America would likely be drawn into World War II The military reluctantly allowed for the development of a flight training program for a limited number of African Americans on a segregated base in Tuskegee Alabama The Tuskegee Airmen as well as other African Americans in the armed forces had the unique experience of fighting two wars at once one against Hitler's fascist regime overseas and one against racial segregation at home Colonel Brown fought as a combat pilot with the 332nd Fighter Group during World War II and was captured and imprisoned in Stalag VII A in Moosburg Germany where he was liberated by General George S Patton on April 29 1945 Upon returning home Brown noted with acute disappointment that race relations in the United States hadn't changed It wasn't until 1948 that the military desegregated which many scholars argue would not have been possible without the exemplary performance of the Tuskegee Airmen

Kaplan, 2013-02-19 If it looks right it will probably fly right a tired old saying among airmen but one that persists Think if you will of the handful of aeroplanes that most people would probably agree are the best looking examples of all The list is short but distinguished and the proof is in the enthusiastic common view of most pilots who have flown them for nearly all it was love at first sight and first flight For most that little list includes the Vickers Supermarine Spitfire the Douglas DC 3 the Hawker Hunter the Lockheed Constellation the Concord and the North American Mustang Of these the Spitfire and Mustang stand out and remain extra special to the majority of pilots who have been privileged to fly them One common thread exists among those who have experienced both of these fine machines an opinion that seems to hold up even after a lifetime of flying the best the aviation design community has created While the Spitfire may have a slight edge in light touch handling if I have to go to war in one type I'll take the Mustang every time This comprehensive account of the Mustang aircraft charts the operational history of the craft and also relays a the personal stories and experiences of the men who flew the Cadillac of the skies as it has been described A vivid and enthralling history set to appeal to aviation enthusiasts looking for more than just a mere operational history of the Mustang s exploits    Flying Magazine ,1975-10    The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints ,1979    *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
