Can We Skip Lunch and Keep Writing? Julie D. Ramsay, 2023-10-10 Publishing podcasts writing digital stories with choose your own adventure endings and collaborating with students around the country through wikis Skype and VoiceThread Julie D Ramsay never imagined that she and her fifth grade students would be forging a new frontier using technology to support writing lessons In a school district with minimal resources and a prescriptive curriculum that makes originality a constant challenge Julie could have continued teaching grammar and writing skills in isolation But when she realized how hungry her students were for real writing activities that enabled them to share and learn from their peers in other states she overcame every obstacle that threatened to stunt their creativity and limit their opportunities to communicate in a digital world Can We Skip Lunch and Keep Writing shows teachers how to weave technology throughout the curriculum and get students so fired up about writing that they don't want to stop when the class period ends Readers will learn how to select appropriate digital tools guide and involve students in the learning process and differentiate instruction to meet individual needs Through Julie's inspiring stories and lessons teachers in the intermediate and middle grades will discover how technology assisted writing can foster innovation global communication and creative problem solving developing responsible productive digital citizens whose inherent love of learning will travel with them throughout their lifetimes

Colonial Temporality and Writing Education Xiaoye You, Othman Z. Barnawi, 2025-09-29 This book examines how a colonial matrix of power is established through temporality in English writing education It offers discourse analyses of higher educational policies that operate in China and Saudi Arabia and then triangulates this data with conversations with writing teachers from representative Chinese and Saudi universities Drawing on all this data to understand both the structured power relations shaping educational policies and the attendant effects on the writing teachers that inhabit these spaces the book develops a decolonial comparative method and adopts the concept of temporal regime as an analytic lens It not only attends to the complex and multilayered ways that this regime controls disciplines and shapes the social wellbeing and professional practices of individual writing teachers but it also details the various ways that teachers understand experience resist negotiate and appropriate the temporal orders From Rigorous Standards to
