ways he was a twentieth century Thoreau Brower transformed the Sierra Club into a national force that challenged and stopped federally sponsored projects that would have dammed the Grand Canyon and destroyed hundreds of millions of acres of our nation's wilderness To admirers he was tireless passionate visionary and unyielding To opponents and even some supporters he was contentious and polarizing As a young man growing up in Berkeley California Brower proved himself a fearless climber of the Sierra Nevada's dangerous peaks After serving in the Tenth Mountain Division during World War II he became executive director of the Sierra Club This uncompromising biography explores Brower's role as steward of the modern environmental movement His passionate advocacy destroyed lifelong friendships and at times threatened his goals
