Book Ride Revolution Inside Stories Cycling:

Ride the Revolution Suze Clemitson, 2015-12-22 When Marie Marvingt decided to ride the 1908 Tour de France she was told absolutely not by M Degrange and the Societe du Tour de France Instead she rode each stage 15 minutes after the official race had departed and finished all 4 488 kms of the parcours a feat that only 36 of the 110 men who entered the race could equal Her motto I decided to do everything better always and forever It is in the spirit of Breakneck Marie that this book has been written This is not an anthology of women writing about women's cycling Nor is it an anthology of women writing about men's bottoms in lycra or peloton crushes or the curse of helmet hair This is an book that celebrates the diversity of women's writing about the glorious sometimes murky often bizarre and frequently hilarious world of cycling in all its soapy operatic glory from the professional sport to the club run on the roadside and in the saddle behind the scenes and on the massage table Ride the Revolution represents the best new writing on cycling from women involved in the sport at all levels as fans key personnel riders photographers journalists and presenters These fresh and vibrant voices examine the sport from a new perspective to provide insights that rarely make it into the mainstream what is it like to be a top women rider or work in their support team Where is the women's sport heading and when will more women be represented at the highest level of sport's governance And how do you get out and ride your bike when the news is full of stories of cyclists dying and you can't get clothing that fits

Revolutions Hannah Ross, 2021-04-01 Eye opening and inspirational An utterly fascinating and gloriously fiery read FELICITY CLOAKE A barnstorming book GUARDIAN Fascinating full of inspirational tales OBSERVER Simone de Beauvoir borrowed her lover's bike to cycle around Paris in the 1940s instantly falling in love with the freedom it gave her even when an accident caused her to lose a tooth Alice Hawkins a factory worker from Leicester pedal powered her fight for universal suffrage as the bicycle became a cornerstone of her work to recruit women to the cause Zahra Naarin Hussano challenged religious and cultural taboos in Afghanistan to ride a bike and teach others to do the same As a twenty four year old Latvian immigrant living in Boston in 1894 Annie Londonderry Kopchovsky became the first woman to cycle around the world She took up the challenge despite never having ridden a bike before after two men bet a woman couldn't do it Many of these women were told they couldn't or shouldn't cycle but they did so anyway Whether winning medals or spreading the word about votes for women their stories are an inspiration In this gloriously celebratory book Hannah Ross introduces us to the women who are part of the rich and varied history of cycling many of whom have been pushed to the margins or forgotten
