Ancient Pasts for Modern Audiences Chelsea A.M. Gardner, Sabrina C. Higgins, 2025-03-17 This volume brings together specialists from a broad demographic and professional range academics museum curators students and content creators to discuss case studies challenges and potential future avenues for public scholarship on the history archaeology and cultures of the ancient Mediterranean North Africa and Western Asia Together the contributions promote the creation of inclusive methods of knowledge mobilisation and communication in public spheres across three main areas cultural heritage pedagogy and public facing scholarship These areas have all been directly affected by Eurocentric structures that have claimed ownership of ancient Mediterranean cultural heritage and have dictated how it has been taught in schools and communicated to the broader public The volume is divided into three sections Museums Teaching and Learning and Global and Local Projects each addressing pressing challenges faced within these interrelated fields and offering ways for us to overcome the exclusionary narratives that plague them Ancient Past for Modern Audiences provides an invaluable resource for those interested in public history from academics to lay audiences in the fields of Ancient Mediterranean North African and Western Asian Studies The book also appeals to professionals and researchers whose interests lie in public facing scholarship pedagogy digital humanities decolonisation studies museum studies and popular media The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Curious about George Rae Lynn Schwartz-DuPre, 2021-11-15 In 1940 Hans Augusto Rey and Margret Rey built two bikes packed what they could and fled wartime Paris Among the possessions they escaped with was a manuscript that would later become one of the most celebrated books in children's literature Curious George Since his debut in 1941 the mischievous icon has only grown in popularity After being captured in Africa by the Man in the Yellow Hat and taken to live in the big city's zoo Curious George became a symbol of curiosity adventure and exploration In Curious about George Curious George Cultural Icons Colonialism and US Exceptionalism author Rae Lynn Schwartz DuPre argues that the beloved character also performs within a narrative of racism colonialism and heroism Using theories of colonial and rhetorical studies to explain why cultural icons like Curious George are able to avoid criticism Schwartz DuPre investigates the ways these characters operate as capacious figures embodying and circulating the narratives that construct them and effectively argues that discourses about George provide a rich training ground for children to learn US citizenship and become innocent supporters of colonial American exceptionalism By drawing on postcolonial theory children's criticisms science and technology studies and nostalgia Schwartz DuPre's critical reading explains the dismissal of the monkey's 1941 abduction from Africa and enslavement in the US described in the first book by illuminating two powerful roles he currently holds essential STEM ambassador at a time when science and technology is central to global competitiveness and as a World War II refugee who offers a deficient version of the Holocaust while performing model US immigrant Curious George's twin heroic roles highlight racist science and an Americanized Holocaust narrative By situating George as a representation of enslaved Africans and Holocaust refugees Curious about George illuminates the danger of contemporary zero sum identity politics the colonization of marginalized identities and racist knowledge production Importantly it demonstrates the ways in which popular culture can be harnessed both to promote colonial benevolence and to present possibilities for resistance

A Siberian History of Soviet Film Caroline Damiens, 2024-10-03 In A Siberian History of Soviet Films Caroline Damiens combines a detailed analysis of key Soviet film and TV works such as Tymancha's Friend 1969 The Most Beautiful Ships 1972 Tracking the Wolverine 1978 and When the Whales Leave 1981 with primary sources like press articles archives and interviews In doing so she reveals how these cinematic portrayals were created and negotiated providing insight into the concepts of progress and authenticity in the Soviet context She emphasizes the role of indigenous individuals in shaping their cinematic image both in front of and behind the camera highlighting the works of lesser known figures like Suntsai Geonka Zinaida Pikounova and Iurii Rytkeu In doing so Damiens emphasizes the multifaceted nature of film where interpretations differ based on the perspectives of those involved Acta academica ,2009 Black Lives in the English Archives, 1500-1677 Imtiaz Habib,2017-05-15 Containing an urgently needed archival database of historical evidence this volume includes both a consolidated presentation of the documentary records of black people in Tudor and Stuart England and an interpretive narrative that confirms and significantly extends the insights of current theoretical excursus on race in early modern England Here for the first time Imtiaz Habib collects the scattered references to black people whether from Africa India or America in sixteenth and seventeenth century England and arranges them into a systematic chronological descriptive index He offers an extended historical and theoretical interpretation of the records in six chapters which serve as an introductory guide to the index even as they articulate a specific argument about the meaning of the records Both the archival information and interpretive scholarship provide a strong framework from which future historical debates on race in early modern England can proceed

Annual Report on English and American Studies ,2004 Virtual Diaspora, Postcolonial Literature and Feminism Ashmita Khasnabish,2022-12-16 This book analyses the resolution of the psychic problem of diasporic existence from a postcolonial feminist perspective by inscribing and defining the meaning of virtual diaspora through the lens of the East India and the West It explores the situation that arises when one leaves one s country and becomes an emigrant immigrant which often causes pain both in the departure from one s motherland and in the adaptation to a new environment The book employs the theory of Deleuze and Guattari and explores the interstices of real and virtual diaspora and the aftermath of diaspora as a mental journey Adding a new interpretation of transcendence taken from the Indian perspective the book examines the Deleuze s theory of immanence and transcendence and the two major concepts of becoming and real virtual The book also examines the works of Helene Cixous J M Coetzee Jhumpa Lahiri Kunal Basu and Tagore in light of the concept of virtual diaspora and from a postcolonial feminist angle It does so by raising the following questions When one has emigrated to a different country can one conceive of that existence as real or virtual or both Do emigrants or diasporic individuals live a life of both real and virtual diaspora This comes from the idea that both real and virtual diaspora under different paradigms may be related to the power struggle and master slave dialectic that affects all of humanity A valuable addition to the study of postcolonial literature the book will also be of interest to researchers in the fields of diaspora studies postcolonial feminist theory postcolonial literature feminist philosophy interdisciplinary studies and Asian Studies in particular South Asian Studies

Writing Through the Visual and Virtual Renée Brenda Larrier, Ousseina Alidou, 2015 Writing Through the Visual and Virtual Inscribing Language Literature and Culture in Francophone Africa and the Caribbean interrogates conventional notions of writing The contributors whose disciplines include anthropology art history education film history linguistics literature performance studies philosophy sociology translation and visual arts examine the complex interplay between language literature arts and the visual and virtual domains of expressive culture The twenty five essays explore various patterns of writing practices arising from contemporary and historical forces that have impacted the literatures and cultures of Benin Cameroon Cote d'Ivoire Egypt Guadeloupe Haiti Martinique Morocco Niger Reunion Island and Senegal Special attention is paid to how scripts though appearing to be merely decorative in function are often used by artists and performers in the production of material and non material culture to tell stories of great significance co mingling words and images in a way that leads to a creative synthesis that links the local and the global the classical and the popular in new ways

Postcolonial Life-Writing Bart Moore-Gilbert, 2009-06-08 Postcolonial Life Writing is the first attempt to offer a sustained critique of this increasingly visible and influential field of cultural production Bart Moore Gilbert considers the relationship between postcolonial life writing and its western analogues identifying the key characteristics that differentiate the genre in the postcolonial context Focusing particularly on writing styles and narrative conceptions of the Self this book uncovers a distinctive parallel tradition of auto biographical writing and analyses its cultural and political significance Original and provocative this book brings together the two distinct fields of Postcolonial Studies and Auto biography Studies in a fruitful and much needed dialogue

Virtual Worlds Pramod K. Nayar, 2004 This interdisciplinary cultural study of the new technologies discusses cyberculture as it mediates and in turn is mediated by the contexts of globalisation politics medical science and war and the realms of everyday life such as learning identity consumption and leisure It pays attention to common and visible expressions of technoculture including music videos niche marketing literature and cosmetic surgery in order to highlight its distinguishing features Using a range of insights from theorists such as Donna Haraway Stuart Hall Manuel Castells Paul Virilio and Katherine Hayles Virtual Worlds explores the dissemination of cyber technology into the social and political fields

Verbal-Visual Configurations in Postcolonial Literature Birgit Neumann, Gabriele Rippl, 2020-04-23 Examining a range of contemporary Anglophone texts this book opens up postcolonial and transcultural studies for discussions of visibility and vision It argues that the preoccupation with visual practices in Anglophone literatures addresses the power of images vision and visual aesthetics to regulate cultural visibility and modes of identification in an unevenly structured world The representation of visual practices in the imaginative realm of fiction opens up a zone in which established orders of the sayable and visible may be revised and transformed In 12 chapters the book examines narrative fiction by writers such as Michael Ondaatje Derek Walcott Salman Rushdie David Dabydeen and NoViolet Bulawayo who employ word image relations to explore the historically fraught links between visual practices and the experience of modernity in a transcultural context Against this conceptual background the examination of verbal visual relations will illustrate how Anglophone fiction models alternative modes of representation that reflect critically on hegemonic visual regimes and reach out for new more pluralized forms of exchange
