Notes From The Blockade:

Notes from the Blockade Lidiya Ginzburg, Lydia Ginzburg, 2016-09-01 The 900 day siege of Leningrad 1941-44 was one of the turning points of the Second World War. It slowed down the German advance into Russia and became a national symbol of survival and resistance. An estimated one million civilians died, most of them from cold and starvation. Lydia Ginzburg, a respected literary scholar who meanwhile wrote prose for the desk drawer through seven decades of Soviet rule, survived. Using her own notes and sketches she wrote during the siege, along with conversations and impressions collected over the years, she distilled the collective experience of life under siege. Through painful depiction of the harrowing conditions of that period, Ginzburg created a paean to the dignity, vitality, and resilience of the human spirit. Blockade Diary Lidia Ginzburg, 1995 A fictionalized account of the 900-day siege of Leningrad during World War II, describing the day-to-day business of finding something to eat while avoiding bombs and shells. The siege cost 600,000 lives.

Lydia Ginzburg, a respected literary scholar, survived. Using her own diary records along with conversations and impressions collected over the years, she distilled the collective experience of life under siege into this moving account.
